RIGHT TO READ DAY

"Right to Read Day" went into full swing at Livingston School, Friday, March 2. Everyone got involved and had fun reading. The day began with fifth and sixth graders making 180 colorful book markers for the 1st thru 4th grades. They also made "I love to read" badges for the students.

The sixth grade put on seven plays. They were "Sweets Three Times A Day", "Pop, Pop, Pop", "What To With All Those Monsters", "Stuck Up, Stuck Down- Stuck Together", "Two Big Babies", "The Haunted House", and "Dracula Meets Frankenstein". They had fifteen performances. At 2:30 USSR began; uninterrupted silent simultaneous reading until 3:00.

All students participated in reading their self-selected books. We had a USSR Parade to get everyone excited and interested in Reading.

On Feb. 14, 1979, others in Rockcastle County, as well as Livingston, were involved in the State Right To Read Day.

Livingston's librarian had her classes making bookmarkers and puppets.

Individual teachers were all involved with reading activities that day.

ORDINANCE

Ordinance of the City of Livingston, Kentucky, taking Notice of concurrent Proceedings of the Council of the City to undertake the construction of a municipally owned sewer system; requiring all sources of flowable sewage to be connected therewith as soon as sewer connection may be available, as herein defined declaring all unconnected sources of flowable sewage where sewers are or may hereafter be made available to constitute a public nuisance which shall be abated; establishing penalties; and establishing effective dates.

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Livingston, Kentucky has heretofore determined that the promotion and preservation of the public health, safety and general welfare of said City and of all of its citizens and its inhabitants require the construction and installation of a municipally owned sewer system, including sanitary sewers, a sewage treatment plant and appropriate facilities; and

WHEREAS, the preservation of the public health, safety and general welfare of said City requires that all existing unsanitary methods of sewage disposal in said City be terminated and that all sources of flowable sewage be required to be connected to the municipal sewer system of said City as soon as such connection is made available.

Now, therefore, the Council of the City of Livingston, Kentucky, does hereby ordain as follows:

Section 1. As used in the following terms of this Ordinance, the following respective meanings unless the context indicates or requires otherwise:

(a) "City" means the City of Livingston, Kentucky, and where the context so indicates, actions on its behalf by the Council of said City, or by such other body as shall be vested with authority over the municipal sewer system of the City.

(b) "Sewer System" or "sewers" means the City of Livingston municipal sewer system which provides, or as may hereafter provide, for the drainage, treatment and disposal of liquid or flowable sewage wastes within the City.

(c) "Premises" means and includes all structures and improvements in the City having flowable sewage wastes which should be drained, treated or disposed of in the interest of the public health, safety and general welfare, a specifically includes, but not by way of limiting the generality of the foregoing, all houses, apartments, hotels, motels, trailer camps, manufacturing, business, commercial or industrial establishments and other structures of any and every nature whatsoever.

(d) The sewer system is "available" as that term is used in this Ordinance, to any premises (improves properties) in the City which abut upon any street, road, alley, public or private way of easement in which there exists or is installed a sewer pipe, main, latera or other structure or installation of said sewer system capable of receiving and conveying wastes in which the City brings or has brought a sewer line to a point located at the edge of the property line or easement of the owner of the premises, as to which premises the City has brought a sewer line within 100 feet of such premises.

Section 2. That all owners and occupants of premises where sewers are now available or are hereafter made available to the City, shall, within ninety (90) days from the date that the Superintendent of the sewer system, or another duly authorized officer of the City, furnishes notice to the owner of such premises, either by personal written notice or by notice published in a local newspaper of general circulation throughout said City, that such sewer line is installed, placed in operation and available to the premises, connect herewith all sanitary sewerage drain pipes of such premises.

Section 3. That all sewer connections shall be made under such regulations as the City may establish. Failure to effect such connection is hereby declared to be unlawful and shall constitute a nuisance. No storm water drain shall be or remain connected or be connected with any separate sanitary sewer heretofore or hereafter constructed as, or made a part of, the sewer system of the City, nor shall any storm water by other means, connect herewith all sanitary sewerage drain pipes of such premises.

Section 4. That no sewer taps (breaking or entering into sewer line) shall be made by any person, firm or corporation except the City. That any application to the City and any contract for tapping or connection fee, as may be prescribed by the City, tap the city sewer and run a latera to the property line of any applicant where sewers are available, and any all installations or attachments thereto shall be made by the applicant under the supervision and approval of the City, provided that nothing herein shall be construed as requiring the City to furnish a sewer connection or sewer service to any premises where a city sewer is not available at the time that the application is made.

Section 5. That all architects, contractors, builders or other persons who shall hereafter erect new premises where sewers are available, shall before erecting the same, exhibit to the City satisfactory evidence that a means has been or will be promptly provided for connection to the city sewer and from such building or structure with the municipal sewer system.

Section 6. That each owner of a house, building or property used for human occupancy, employment, recreation, or other purpose, situated within the City and to which sewer service is made available by the City, is hereby required at his expense to install suitable toilet facilities directly with such available public sewer in accordance with the requirement of this Ordinance.

Section 7. That all cost and expense incident to the installation and connection of a building sewer shall be borne by the owner, who shall indemnify the City from any loss or damage that may directly or indirectly be caused by the installation of the building sewer, all connections shall be made under the supervision of the Superintendent of the sewer system or other duly authorized official of the City.

Section 8. That it shall be unlawful for any person to construct or maintain a privy, well, vault, cesspool, cistern, septic tank or similar contrivance for the collection of flowable sewage where sewers are available, and all such privies, wells, vaults, cesspools, cisterns, septic tanks, facilities and similar contrivances shall be removed or disconnected by the owners and the occupants of premises to which sewers are made available in the City as soon as the same are made available to such premises. All such privies, facilities and other means of casting or depositing sewage into a container above or below the surface of the ground, or upon or into the soil or into any running or percolating stream of water or into any cistern or well whereby the soil is contaminated with such sewage, are hereby declared to be unlawful and to constitute a nuisance.

Section 9. That it shall be unlawful for any person to place, deposit, or permit to be deposited in any unimproved manner upon public or private property within the City, any garbage or other objectionable waste, or to discharge to any natural or artificial stream, City, any sewage, industrial wastes or other polluted waters, except where suitable treatment has been provided under the supervision of the Superintendent of the municipal sewer system or other duly authorized City official.

Section 10. That no substances shall be placed or discharged into the municipal sewer system which will create a combustible, gaseous, or explosive atmosphere or condition in said system, nor shall any substances or objects be placed or discharged into the municipal sewer system which will obstruct or which will thus cause an obstruction and clogging within said system. No petroleum products shall be placed or discharged into the municipal sewer system.

Section 11. That this Ordinance may be amended at any time to provide more detailed regulations as to the requirements for connection to or the use of the sewer system of the City, provided, however, that this Ordinance cannot be amended in any manner which may adversely affect the interests of holders of outstanding bonds constituting an encumbrance against the revenues therefrom or against the revenues thereof.

Section 12. That any person, firm or corporation violating any provision of this Ordinance, or failing or refusing to comply with same, whether or not he, she or it shall be the owner or the occupant of the premises, shall be fined not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) nor more than Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) for each offense. Each such person, firm or corporation refuses or fails to connect the sanitary sewer drain from any property or building owned or occupied by him, her or it with an available sewer line, each day any privy, well, vault, pool, cistern, septic tank or similar contrivance is used, such sewage is case or permitted to be disposed of, is kept or maintained in violation of this Ordinance, each day any storm water drain remains connected to any separate sanitary sewer, and each day that any other provision hereof is violated, shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 13. That if any clause, provision, or section of this Ordinance be ruled void or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder hereof is intended to be enacted and shall be in full force and effect notwithstanding.

Section 14. That all ordinances, orders, resolutions, motions or parts thereof, insofar as they may be in conflict herewith, are repealed, and this Ordinance shall take effect from and after its adoption, approval and publication as an Ordinance of the City.

Kentucky Afield

By John Wilson

It seems that just about every major outdoor magazine I've picked up lately has contained an article on river fishing. Rivers are being "rediscovered" by some of the country's leading anglers and these trend setters are bound to influence a lot of other fishermen. We Kentuckians are in a rather enviable position. With more miles of running water than any other state outside Alaska, Kentucky can be a river fisherman's paradise.

While many rivers and streams in the state are John boat or canoe size, others are capable of accommodating the largest fresh water fishing craft and offer angling situations similar to lake fishing.

Kentucky's largest river by far is the Ohio. With its northern shore forming the border of the state, the Ohio meanders through 664 miles in Kentucky representing a body of water with 170,000 surface areas. That's equal in size to the combined surface areas of the Kentucky portions of Kentucky, Barkley and Dale Hollow Lakes added to Cumberland, Barren, Nolin, Rough River, Green, Grayson and Herring's.

While far from being a "wild river," the Ohio has surprisingly good water quality and right now probably has better fish populations than at any other time in this century. In fact, the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources thinks so highly of the Ohio's potential that it has assigned research fisheries biologist to the river full time.

According to this biologist, Benjamin Kinman, the Ohio represents our most underutilized fishing resource. Game species present in the river, Kinman says, include sauger, crappie, white bass, largemouth bass (two sizes but not as many, Kentucky and smallmouth bass), and catfish.

Backwater areas of the river contain excellent sandbar, spottail, and sunfish populations. Kinman's research has revealed. These backwaters, formed by the new series of high dams on the river, provide some of the river's best fishing, according to Kinman.

Other good spots are just below the dams. Here, particularly in the spring, is where many fish and fishermen congregate. Tailwaters are the best prices to catch sauger and white bass as these fish make their annual upstream spawning runs.

As water quality improves, other fish that once inhabited the river are returning. Walleye are not uncommon in some sections of the river and recently a 20-pound musky was taken below the Greenup Dam in Northeast Kentucky. Since many of the Ohio's tributaries originate up north, it's possible to find yellow perch in the river as well. A tiny lake trout was discovered in a water intake, Kinman says.

Kentucky, West Virginia and other states in the Ohio River drainage have stocked rockfish (saltwater striped bass) in the river, so watch for these fish to start showing up more and more. In fact, Kinman says, one of the biggest appeals of river fishing is that you never know what you'll catch next.

Strangers of mixed species—white bass, sauger, largemouths, crappie and an occasional walleye—are much more common in rivers than in most places.

Access to some sections of the river is good, although there are long stretches without launching facilities. Presently there are 38 launching ramps on the Kentucky shore of the river. Part of Kinman's research is to determine where access points are needed and to investigate the ways of improving access for both bank and boat fishermen.

Kentucky residents may fish the Ohio with their regular fishing license, and there is a special $6.50 Ohio River license available for residents of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. Statewide Kentucky size and creel limits apply on the river.

If you'd like to try river fishing, either on the Ohio or on one of the many other streams in Kentucky, you might be interested in a new publication available from the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources. "Access to Streams," this 22-page booklet describes launching facilities suitable for a boat and trailer on Kentucky's streams and river.

toward assuring emotional and mental health when children grow up.

In what ways can parents provide the "quality of love that is needed?"

First, through tender, gentle, yet consistent physical handling of the infant, we demonstrate love.

Second, talking, humming or singing to the infant are expressions of love.

Third, a simple act, like looking into your child's eyes when you talk to him or her communicates respect and love.

Fourth, smile for your child frequently when you are happy about what he does or says.

Fifth, allow the young child to touch your face—to be physically close when he wishes.

Sixth, gentle handling of the baby during bath and feeding times, as well as playtime, tells the infant that "you love him."

A child sufficiently loved in infancy will be able to give love as an adult.

School Board Comes Up With Plan To Make Up 26 Missed 'Snow Days'

By Jane Kundtz

The Rockcastle County School Board is going to ask the state's permission to dismiss school June 1 without any extended days or "make up days" because of the 26 days missed this year due to snow and flooding.

The State Board of Education should make its decision March 12. If the state says no, school will either run through June 11 on a regular time schedule, or the school day will be extended 25 minutes in the afternoon for a six-week period, probably in April.

The Board is asking for the June 1st dismissal schedule based on the fact that school here started August 10 and was due to run May 7. Six days were made up because the Rockcastle school year is slightly longer than the minimum six hours required by the state. Another day was made up under the state's "calamity day policy."

A county is allowed to close a certain number of days once it's missed 25 days due to "calamity." (Rockcastle has one day missed over the 25 day standard.)

Charles Parsons, school superintendent, told the Board he met with all Rockcastle County principals last week, and that those recommendations came out of that meeting. No decision has been made as to extended days or running school to June 11, although some teachers seem to prefer the extended day plan because they intend to go to summer school this year and most of those college programs start in early June. The principals would prefer the extended days to start in April, when the weather is cooler, Mr. Parsons said.

Children will have a two-day spring vacation April 12-13 when the Kentucky Education Association holds its annual convention. In other business, the Board approved a rule that children must be immunized or in the process of being immunized before enrolling in school next fall. (See story elsewhere on this page).

The Board approved a list of textbooks selected by local teachers from a "state-approved list of books."

The Board voted to take bids on fire insurance, which is due to expire April 3. Improvements to fire safety standards in the schools were also discussed. Mt. Vernon and Livingston Schools will probably be improved this summer with fire safety doors in the stairwells and kitchens, and Broad-

School Board Says All Children Must Be Immunized By Next Fall

All children must be immunized or in the process of getting immunized before they will be allowed to enroll in school next fall, Rockcastle County's School Board decided Tuesday night.

The Board was referred to a letter from Dr. C. Hernandez, director of the Kentucky Division of Preventive Services, that was sharply critical of Rockcastle's record of immunization.

"The data demonstrates that in defiance of the law inadequately immunized children have been allowed to enroll in school," Dr. Hernandez wrote. "Unless remedial action is taken, the inevitable result will be cases and outbreaks of entirely preventable diseases among children in your community."

Data put together by Nancy Bradley of the Rockcastle County Health Department shows that 1,990 children out of 3,328 enrolled have been immunized, or about 60%. Kindergartners and first graders have a 95% immunization total, but the percentages fall in the higher grades. Elementary school children have a 64% record, and high schoolers show only 49% out of 913 enrolled. The national goal is 90% immunization.

Parents will be responsible for taking their children to the Health Department or a private physician to start the four-month process of immunization. The schedule includes shots for diphtheria, polio, measles, rubella, whooping cough and mumps, taken at different intervals. The Health Department, located in the Mt. Vernon Courthouse, is open from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. on the first and third Fridays of the month for free immunizations. No appointment is necessary. The Department closes between 12 noon and 1 p. m. for lunch.

If parents are unable to bring their children in themselves, they must come to the Clinic in person and sign a permission form to have the children immunized. Then a grandmother or babysitter or some other adult can bring the children in for immunization, as long as the permission slip is properly signed by the parent or guardian in person in the Health Department office.

If a child has had immunizations from a private physician or in some other county, he must bring documentation of this to school to avoid having to be immunized again. Transfer students must be immunized or in the process of being immunized before enrolling in a Rockcastle school, the Board ruled.

Parents who object to having their children immunized for religious reasons can get a form through school that must be signed by a pastor or a regular religious organization documenting the objections.

Children who are unable to take the shots because of physical reasons must document that fact through a licensed doctor. These will be the only two exceptions to the immunization rule.

Rockets Advance in 13th Region!

The Rockcastle boys team's hopes of a district title were thwarted once again by Clay County Saturday night as the Clay County Tigers won 69-56. The game was closer than the score indicates until the last part of the fourth quarter when the Tigers took over and out-played the Rockets.

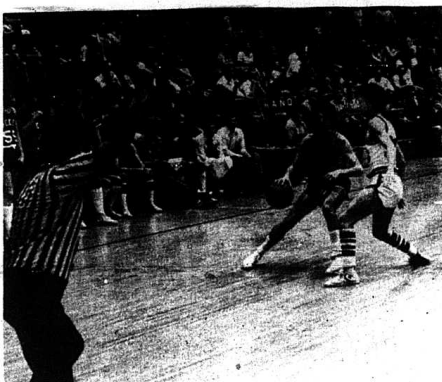

The Rockets' spirit was not as high as it had been in their first-round game against Oneida. Several floor mistakes were made and their shooting was off as compared to what they had accomplished in the first game of the tourney.

The Rockets placed four on the all-tournament team: Steve Center, who had two fine games, scoring 20 and 22 respectively; Eddie Thompson, Walter Brown and Jack Farthing. Scoring for the Rockets in the Clay Co. game went as follows: Center, 22; Browning and Thompson, 12 each; Farthing, 6 and Jeff Hammonds and David Mullins, 2 each.

As district runners-up, the Rockets advanced to 13th Region play and Tuesday night won a thriller over Corbin 83-61.

After trailing most of the first three quarters, the Rockets came back in the fourth to play catch-up ball and crucial foul shots by Steve Center, Walter Browning and Jeff Hammonds spelled doom for Corbin and senior Jack Farthing sank two free throws for the final two-point margin.

Even with the win, the Rockets didn't qualify for the good (Cont'd to front, Section 2)

It Spelled Doom for Corbin! Jack Farthing, No. 22, had just been fouled by a Corbin player - a foul which sent him to the free-throw line where he calmly sank the two shots. This gave the Rockets a 63-61 win over Corbin and the right to advance in the 13th Regional Tournament. (Photos by Kenneth Pillion).

More Progress Made At Family Life Center

More progress has been made on the Christian Appalachian Project's (CAP) Family Life Center. The old Scenic View Motel has already been used for religious retreats, and a park for family reunions should be ready this summer.

Mr. Keaton, staff member, said that a large community room is being added to the motel building near its entrance, and it should be completed by the end of the year. Men had already laid a concrete slab foundation.

CAP is putting in picnic pavilions, basketball and volleyball courts on other facilities on the old Parsons property near the motel building, where family reunions might be held. Anyone interested in booking the property for a weekend should call 258-5612.

The park will be open to the general public, he said, but CAP likes the idea of families using it together.

"The purpose of the Center is to strengthen and enhance the family," Mr. Keaton said, "that is our theme and purpose."

Mr. Keaton and other CAP staff members recently met with a group of Rockcastle County ministers, to tell them CAP's plans and try to get their cooperation and interest in the project. Some of the ministers will probably be working with the Center on a referral basis, Mr. Keaton said.

Among the local people attending the project were John Zupancic, Kenton Parkey, Bob Fields, Lee Bivins, Henry Hines, Harold Ballinger, Jack Morris, and the director of the Center, Len Miller, director of the Family Life Center, and Father Ralph Bieting, director of CAP.

Two specific projects CAP has in mind include a group home for juvenile delinquents and an emergency shelter program. Marriage retreats will be held at the motel building.

Fiscal Court Transfers Funds From District 1 to District 5

Rockcastle County Fiscal Court voted to take $1500 budgeted for roads in district 1, and spend it instead in District 5. Frank DeBorde, who represents District 1, was the only magistrate voting no.

According to state law, all road money is considered one general county fund, administered by Judge-Executive Hubert Thacker. But for accounting purposes, each district was allotted $970 this year, and the funds were accounted for separately. District 5 is down to $37.73, whereas Districts 1 and 3 have over $4400 each left over. (See accompanying chart).

Mr. DeBorde said that he wanted to "save" some road money for the spring when roads need the most repair.

Judge Thacker said that District 1 is a small district with only two precincts, and that the money was needed in other areas of the county. He said if District 1's roads need work later on, he and the magistrates would most certainly help out.

The Court also transferred $2200 from the ambulance insurance account to road maintenance, and $547 from capital construction to garbage collection.

A bid from H. B. Miller of Mt. Vernon to demolish the skating rink at the Brodhead Fairgrounds was accepted over five others, ranging from $3448 to $6300. Miller will do the job for materials salvaged, with work completed in 45 days. The demolition of the rink is a first step toward building a park and recreation center at the Fairgrounds, now owned by the county.

The Court agreed to buy a Birmingham 8 foot trailer from Wayne Supply Co. of Louisville for $3204. Since the amount was under $5,000, no competitive bidding was done.

The magistrates voted to accept Hamm's Subdivision Road off Hwy. 70. R. H. Hamm said that it had been built according to state standards, and was ready to be maintained by the county.

Sammy Ford of Ford Realty and Auction Company told the court that county trucks parked behind the Courthouse in the lot near his business and Carter's Supermarket, and along "a tremendous traffic hazard." He said it was impossible for drivers to see around the trucks when they pulled out of the lot. The Court took no action.

Money Ed Cummins, District Court Clerk, presented $106 in doctor's bills incurred by prisoners in the Rockcastle County Jail. He said that the state would not pay bills that were made before May 12, and there was no other source of funds except the Fiscal Court. The Court took no action on this matter, either.

Amos Burdette read a letter from David F. Parsons asking the Court to make a "wise and thrifty use of the public money" in the Brodhead project, and to "allow local businesses like ours to compete." Judge Thacker said that competitive bidding would be done routinely in the Brodhead project.

How Road Money Was Spent In Each District

1-Frank DeBorde	$4704	$4565
2-Roone Croner	$5278	$990
3-Danny Sargent	$4327	$4442
4-Amos Burdette	$8781	$538.
5-Joe Clark	$9232	$37.

John Rogers Announces Re-election Campaign

State Senator John Rogers, a Somerset Republican Thursday announced he will seek re-election to the Kentucky State Senate from the 16th Senate district which includes Rockcastle, as well as Pulaski, Lincoln, Casey and part of McCrery Counties.

Rogers, a 38-year-old attorney will run in the May Primary for his second term in the Senate.

In making his re-election announcement Senator Rogers said "The experience and knowledge I have gained during my first four year term will give me a more effective voice in the senate when the General Assembly begins again in 1980."

AS LONG AS I HAVE THE MAJORITY privilege of being a senator."

When re-elected, Rogers said his goals will be to cut state government spending thereby providing more meaningful tax relief, to continue his opposition to collective bargaining for public employees and to unreasonable federal regulations on our energy sources primarily coal-which, he said is the number one reason why utility bills have been increased so much in the recent past.

Senator Rogers is the only announced candidate in the 15th Senate district. He already has filed as a candidate with the Secretary of State's Office in Frankfort.

Legislative Report

By Rep. Harold DeMarcus

The 1979 Extraordinary Session has been over for a month now and just about everything that could be said about it has been said. Although the reviews are both good and bad, the results of the session will have to be judged by how the people of the Commonwealth view them.

So, now that the special session of Kentucky's General Assembly has ended, the state legislature is once again working on preparations for the 1980 regular session. Legislators and committees have already introduced eleven bills to be considered in the next session which will convene in January.

Senate Bill 187, which was passed during the 1978 regular session allows for the pre-filing of bills, when a bill is pre-filed, it can be reviewed before the session; experts can be called to testify about the legislation and legislators can become more familiar with it before they are confronted with hundreds of other bills during the crunch of the 60-day legislative session.

Bills which have been pre-filed for 1980 are as follows:

(1) A bill to put a constitutional amendment on the ballot, the amendment would give Kentucky voters initiative and referendum powers.

(2) A bill which would void any legislation which was signed by a governor if clerical errors were found which made the bill different than that passed by the General Assembly, this bill is sponsored by the Interim Joint Committee on Judiciary-Statutes.

(3) A bill to amend Kentucky's kidnapping law to bring it into compliance with recent rulings by the U.S. Supreme Court, this bill is also sponsored by the Interim Joint Committee on Judiciary-Statutes.

(4) A bill to provide special license plates for volunteer firemen.

(5) A bill prohibiting foreign businesses or individuals from owning or controlling more than ten acres of agricultural land in Kentucky.

(6) A bill allowing voters to obtain applications for absentee ballots for their children; this bill is sponsored by the Interim Joint Committee on Elections and Constitutional Amendments.

(7) A bill voiding a law any bill enacted after being amended by inserting the text or provisions of another bill.

(8) A bill prohibiting a will from denying the right to inherit by survivorship where there is a deed of record conveying the real estate to the surviving spouse; this bill is being sponsored by the Interim Joint Committee on Judiciary-Statutes.

(9) A bill extending the property tax "homestead exemptions" to the

Lair and Hunt Receive

Lions Club Awards

52 Lions Club members from seven different clubs helped the Mt. Vernon Lions Club celebrate their 35th anniversary last week at the regular meeting of the local club.

John Lair and Ed Hunt both received awards for their years of service to the club and to the community. District Governor Bob Black of Lexington presented a 35 year pin to Lion Lair and a 24 year pin to Lion Hunt, stating they had set good examples for all Lions for their devotion as good Lions Club members.

Lions Club President Robert Robinson recognized Clyde Barnett and Earl Hammons, both of Mt. Vernon, two former members who helped charter the Mt. Vernon club in February 1944.

Lions attending from other clubs included 15 from Lexington, 5 from Brodhead, 3 from Richmond, 2 from Berea, 3 from Nicholasville, 2 from Stanford, 3 from Lancaster, with 11 members of the Mt. Vernon Club present.

Lion Ed Hunt has a short talk on various accomplishments of the local club over the past 35 years.

Governor Black was guest speaker who on Lionism and service to the community.

Education: Your Children Need The Best They Can Get

Unfortunately, Kentucky still ranks near the bottom nationally in educational opportunity for our children. At the same time, however, there seems to be plenty of money available for politicians to take trips at taxpayers' expense. Every year we lose many qualified teachers to surrounding states who leave Kentucky for better salaries. Who can blame them? Kentucky teachers earn an average of $2,000 less per year than their counterparts in surrounding states.

Our teachers need and deserve a substantial salary increase and must have additional authority to maintain classroom discipline and a proper educational environment.

I intend to strongly support education in Kentucky and my door will always be open to teachers and school administrators who need help with their problems.

slow action by the subcommittee as the reason for his resignation.

Since the committee was formed it has not done "A nickel's worth of work," he said. DeMarcus said the executive branch is opposed to the idea of the legislature having computerized access to financial information and is blocking action.

DeMarcus resigned then left the meeting.

Rep. William Donnermeyer (d-Bellevue), chairman of the subcommittee, continued the meeting. Sen. Danny Yeom (D-Louisville) was absent.

Donnermeyer said he disagreed with DeMarcus' statements. Various factors have slowed action on consideration of the statewide system including DeMarcus' illness and legislative sessions, said Donnermeyer.

Donnermeyer said several legislators generated the idea for the computerized system and it "would be a great help to the legislative branch." However, it is not as simple as installing a phone, he added.

The system will be "tremendously costly" and there are many ideas on how it should be organized, said Donnermeyer. He said he sees "the light at the end of the road" concerning action on the issue.

Donnermeyer went on a tour of the computer system in the state auditor of public accounts office. That system has been in operation since January 1978. A demonstration of the system was given by Jim Baker, information systems manager for the auditor's office.

Baker said that since getting a statewide computer information system operational would probably take five years, a set-up similar to the auditor's office might be considered as an interim system.

The key to such an interim system would be data sharing between the government branches and the Appropriations and Revenue Committee, he said.

According to James Monsour, legislative analyst for the LRC, conservative estimates have set the cost of a statewide information retrieval system at $10 million and the time for implementation from three to four years.

CORRECTION

In a feature in last week's Signal about Mrs. Ida Abney and Bunnor School, it was incorrectly reported that Mrs. Abney received $50 a year for teaching. The figure should have been $50 a month. The Signal regrets this error.

Mark McFerron, sticky Hickey and Handy Powell designed covers for Mt. Vernon's "All-Kentucky City" record books. Absent was Audrey Morgan, who also worked on the project. Mt. Vernon presented its entry in Lexington Tuesday.

SSI Statistics

About 94,000 needy aged, blind and disabled people in Kentucky received $125,000,000 in supplemental security income payments in 1978, according to Robert Anderson, social security branch manager.

Of that amount $50,500,000 was paid to aged recipients, $3,740,000 to the blind, and $71,180,000 to the disabled. Mr. Anderson said.

Nationwide, 4.2 million persons are receiving SSI. Payments totaled $6.4 billion in 1978, including $4.9 billion in Federal funds and $1.5 billion in State funds.

Supplemental security income is a Federally-administered program that pays monthly checks to people in financial need who are 65 or older and to people in need at any age who are blind or disabled.

The aim of SSI is to provide monthly checks so that needy people 65 or older, or blind or disabled, can have a basic cash income—$189.40 a month for one person, and $284.80 for a married couple.

"Not every person gets that much in his supplemental security income check every month," Mr. Anderson said.

Supplemental security income is not the same as social security, even though the program is run by the Social Security Administration. The money for SSI checks comes from the general funds of the U.S. Treasury. Social security benefits are paid from contributions of workers, employers, and self-employed people. Social security funds are not used for SSI checks.

People who get social security checks can get SSI checks, too, if they are eligible for both. But a person does not have to be eligible for social security to get SSI. If you think you may be eligible for SSI, or if you want more information, call your Richmond Social Security office at 623-8856, or see your local representative, James Baker, when he is present at the Rockcastle County Courthouse.

The cost of getting a family together shouldn't keep a family apart.

Fortunately, long distance rates are still a bargain. In fact, they're low enough to keep you close to every side of your family. No matter how far away they might be.

For example, if you have family in Bakersfield, California and you live in Lewiston, Maine, a three-minute call will cost you no more than $1.30, excluding federal and local taxes.

Those regular rates apply if you dial direct without operator assistance anytime between 8 A.M. and 5 P.M. If you call during one of our bargain calling periods (weekends and week nights after 5 P.M.) you can save up to 60% off our regular rates.

So don't wait until next week, or next month, or next year to have your next family reunion.

Why A Will is Important

Who will receive your worldly belongings at the end of your life? All who plan to die—and a few who don't—should ask themselves this question.

An up-to-date will, properly prepared, is assurance that your property will pass to those of your choice at your death. If you do not have a will, your estate will be divided according to state law rather than your wishes. Remember, you have worked hard to accumulate property during your lifetime and Kentucky law gives you the privilege of determining who will get and enjoy this property after your death. But if you want that property distributed in a way other than that provided by laws of descent and distribution, you must have a will.

A will is a written statement that specifies who shall receive property at the owner's death. It is not effective until after the owner's death, the County Court orders that the provisions of the will be carried out. Anyone with objections to the will can raise them at this time.

Only your last will is valid. This means that you can rewrite your will at any time as conditions change. Browning recommends that you destroy your old will when you've written the new one, to avoid confusion over which one applies. He also points out that recent changes in federal estate tax law make it important that you review your will and update it if necessary.

If your present will was written before October 4, 1976, you definitely should review it. There have been significant changes in use of marital deductions, lifetime gifts and other areas. In addition, the minimum size of estates subject to federal taxes has been increased. These changes may make it necessary to revise your will, but you should have a look at it with possible changes in mind. It's best that you have an attorney's help in preparing your will.

Estate Workshop Planned

Is there some way to pay off the mortgage when you die? Is there some way to avoid stress and hard feelings among your heirs? Is there some way to keep them from having to sell part or all of the property in order to pay inheritance taxes? What does it usually cost to make a legal will and who can help you with it? Do you have to hire a lawyer? Do lawyers charge about the same fees?

There are just a few questions you will find the answers to if you attend a special Estate Planning Workshop scheduled for Rockcastle County farms on March 12 and 19, 1979 at the Rockcastle County High School at 7:00 p.m. Helen Stephens, UK Extension Specialist in Family Economics and Steve Allen, Farm Management Specialist, will be the resource persons on hand to help those who attend.

Most people don't know the answer to these and other questions. Therefore, at the time of death, there is often much confusion, stress, extra expense, misunderstanding and hard feelings among the survivors and heirs.

When an estate is impersonally parcelled out to heirs according to the laws that take over when there is no will, it can work hardships. It will probably cost more money than it should, and it may be downright unfair from the standpoint of people involved.

It doesn't have to be that way. We are having these workshops to teach people how to put their affairs in order and plan for a smooth transfer of property when they or another member of the family.

The workshop is being planned by the Rockcastle County Extension Service in cooperation of the UK College of Agriculture.

will. Since you won't be there after your death to explain what your writing means, an attorney can help you word your will so it can be interpreted easily later.

The fee charged by most attorneys for a simple will is not large. Feel free to discuss charges with your attorney before the will is prepared.

Among the advantages of having a will are these: You can decide on the distribution of your property in event of your death; the costs of settling your estate may be reduced; you will have the privilege of naming a man or woman to carry out your wishes in estate settlement; you can indicate who is to care for minor children; if you wish, you can set up part or all of your estate in a trust for the benefit of someone; certain heirs who may be more deserving than others; you can leave part of your property to a church, school, or other religious or charitable organizations tax free as you wish.

To learn more about estate planning, you should attend both sessions of the Estate Planning Workshop to be held March 12 and 19 at the Rockcastle County High School at 7:00 p.m. Helen Stephens, Family Economics Specialist and Steve Allen, Farm Management Specialist from the University of Kentucky will be on hand to answer your questions. We have also invited a local attorney, Mr. Jerry Cox, to participate in the workshop with legal advice. This workshop is sponsored by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Try The Eye-Openers

If you really want to wake up the flavor of doughnuts, scrambled eggs or omelets, add potatoes. Potatoes can be a real eye-opener. With the largest flat potato crop in U.S. history, you will find good prices on all the potatoes you need this month. Buy marketing specialists with the U.S.D.A.

For potato doughnuts and potato omelets, begin with the mashed potatoes you served the night before. To prepare potato-egg scramble or potato pancakes with cheese sauce, buy baking or old potatoes. These potatoes have a higher starch content which makes them light and airy, almost soufflé-like in consistency.

Here are some eye-opening recipes to start your day.

Potato Doughnuts

6 cups flour
7 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. salt
1 ten nutmeg

3 eggs
2 cups sugar
1 1/4 cups warm mashed potatoes
6 tbs. melted shortening
1/4 cup milk

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and nutmeg. In a separate bowl, beat eggs; then blend in sugar, mashed potatoes and melted shortening. Add dry ingredients and mix only until flour disappears. Chill thoroughly. Place about one-third of the dough at a time on lightly floured surface. Roll dough to 1/4-inch thickness. Cut with floured doughnut cutter. Fry until golden brown in deep fat at 375 degrees. Drain on absorbent paper. Makes 4 1/2 to 5 dozen doughnuts.

Potato Omelet

4 eggs
minced parsley or sauted chopped onions
2 cups mashed potatoes
For four servings, beat eggs until frothy and add to seasoned mashed potatoes. Drop by spoonfuls into well-greased skillet. Fry slowly, over low heat, until nicely browned. Sprinkle with minced parsley or sauted chopped onions and fold each omelet in half. Serve immediately.

Potato-Egg Scramble

2 bacon slices
2 cups sliced raw potatoes

1/4 cup milk
1 tsp. salt
4 eggs, beaten

Cook bacon slices in a fry pan until crisp. Remove from the pan. Then fry thinly sliced raw potatoes in the bacon fat until they are well browned, sprinkling with salt when they start to brown. Cover the pan closely and cook over low heat until potatoes are tender.

Combine 4 beaten eggs with milk, season with pepper and pour over the frying potatoes in the pan. Cook slowly, stirring occasionally, until eggs are set.

Crumble the bacon and add it just before taking the pan from the heat. Serve at once.

Potato Pancakes with Cheese Sauce

2 cups grated raw potato
1/4 cup milk
1 egg, beaten slightly
2 tbs. flour
1 tbs. finely chopped onion
1 tsp. salt, pepper
Stir grated potato immediately into milk. Add other ingredients. Drop mixture by spoonfuls into greased frying pan and cook slowly until well browned and crisp on both sides. Serve with cheese sauce.

About Pediculosis Or "Head Lice"

The head louse occurs worldwide and is common in outbreaks among school children. It is contacted by direct contact with an infested person and indirectly by contact with their personal belongings, especially clothing and headgear. The eggs of lice hatch in a week and maturity is reached in approximately two weeks. Lice can be transmitted as long as they remain alive on the infested person or in his clothing and until eggs in the hair and clothing have been destroyed.

The Mt. Vernon Signal Thursday, March 8, 1979

The best preventive measures are:

1. Avoid physical contact with infested individuals.
2. Use hot water and soap to maintain cleanliness and laundering of clothing hot soapy water for at least twenty minutes or dry cleaning to destroy lice and nits.

If one member of a family becomes infested with head lice, all the members of the family should be disinfected plus all the articles of clothing, bedding and cosmetic articles.

There are non-prescription preparations available that are fairly effective; however, the most effective disinfectant requires a prescription by a doctor.

The Rockcastle Girls Team, which has had an excellent season and came within a heartbeat of taking the District Tournament crown, are shown in the above photo with Coach Preston Parrett. Four of the girls were named to the District All-Tournament team: Kay Hammonds, Diane Thacker, Sandy Sturgill and Kim Howard.

TMC Official to be at Wildie

Clark Dickerson, Director of Development with TCM International, Inc. will speak at the Wildie Christian Church on March 9-11, 1979. TCM International is a missionary organization reaching the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe with the Christian message through printing, radio and personal visitation. Mr. Dickerson will report on recent trips into Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union. In addition, he will relate his first-hand experiences behind the iron curtain, delivering literature, speaking before congregations and participating in youth meetings.

Clark is a life-long resident of Indianapolis and received all of his education from schools and universities in the Central Indiana area. He received his Bachelor's Degree from Wabash College and his Master's Degree from Indiana State University and has much of his requirements completed for a Doctorate.

Mr. Dickerson came to TCM from a professional background in the field of education, having taught in high school and college. He spent eight years on the staff of Franklin College in Indiana.

Franklin Memorial Christian Church is where Mr. Dickerson has worshipped and served for some years. He is an elder, trustee, and Chairman of the Building committee.

Clark's wife, Janie, is also involved in the educational field as administrative assistant and teacher. They have one daughter, Mindy.

Eddie Thompson was the Rockets' leading scorer in Tuesday night's win over Corbin in Regional play. Eddie scored 19 points in the game. Free throw shooting by the Rockets finally decided the outcome of the game.

Walter Browning, No. 52, goes high for a tip-in during the Rockets 63-61 Regional Tourney win over Corbin. Browning scored 11 against Corbin and did a good job for the Rockets on the boards.

Jeff Hammonds, No. 15, tries for a lay-up against first-round opponent Corbin in the 13th Region. Hammonds came off the bench to score 6 points - all crucial foul shots that the Rockets needed late in the game.

Local Libraries Participating in State Contest

Children ages 5 to 12 years can compete in a contest sponsored by the Kentucky Library Association. One child from each of Kentucky's 120 counties will win a trip to Frankfort where he will be a guest at a luncheon March 31, in the Governor's mansion, hosted by Mrs. Julian Carroll and her daughter.

To win, all the child has to do is pick up an application from his school library or the Rockcastle County Library and write a statement on "What the Library means to me." All applications will be compiled and the winning one will be drawn at random March 20. Sponsors of the local contest are Laura Lee Mink, Roundstone

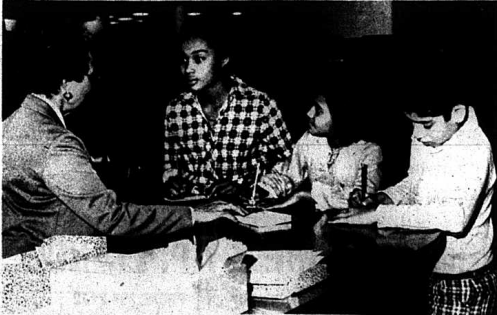

School Librarian, and Laura Durham, Rockcastle County High School Librarian. The theme of the contest is based on the United Nations "International Year of the Child." The state theme is "We love you, Kentucky," especially your libraries.

Send a Child to Frankfort . . . For One Exciting Day.

A contest is being held as a preliminary to the Kentucky Library Association's kickoff luncheon for National Library Week, April 1-7. One child from each of Kentucky's 120 counties will be selected to attend a luncheon at the Governor's Mansion honoring 1979 as the International Year of the Child. On March 31, Mrs. Julian Carroll, Kentucky's honorary chairwoman of the International Year of the Child, and her daughter Elly will host the event and greet each of the children along with honored guests, Colonel Harland Sanders; Lillie Chaffin, Kentucky poet; Bob Powell, Kentucky artist; Jan Farley, folksinger; and all-time children's favorite, Queenie Bee. Registration at each school library or local public library is open to any child from 5-12 years old who is a resident of Kentucky and of the county in which he or she enters the contest. Entries are limited to one per child. A drawing will be held in each county March 16 to choose one winner and two alternates.

Kim Howard takes a shot against a Clay County defender during the finals Saturday night. The girls had a chance to pull the game out with 4 seconds left when a Rockets player was fouled. But she was unable to convert for the two points needed to tie the game. The girls now face Corbin Saturday at Middlesboro at 1 p.m. in the first-round of the Regional Tournament.

ball but they had enough size to outlast Corbin. Center got in foul trouble early and had to set out the entire third quarter. However, he came back into the game in the fourth quarter and it made a difference.

The Rockets will now advance to the semi-finals against Lone Jack Thursday night at 7 p.m.

"CAP SCHOLARSHIP"

The scholarship is unique, in that contribution to and involvement in community activity and service are the prime requisites for the awards.

Sandy Sturgill tries to get the ball to Diane Thacker during the championship game between the Rocket girls and the Clay County Tigercettes. In regular season play, Clay County had defeated the Rockets twice - once by 20 points and once by 13. However, the girls came back to throw a bad scare into the Tigercettes by staying close the entire game and only losing by a two-point margin, 34-32.

Diane Thacker, who has played outstanding ball for the girls team at BCHS during her career there, looks for a little help during the championship game of the 49th District against Clay County. Clay County won, but not before a battle, by a score of 34-32.

LIFE CENTER

Mr. Keaton said that CAP wants to serve all of eastern Kentucky with the Family Life Center, but that Rockcastle Co. has "top priority."

Further awards and applications may be obtained shortly from your school counselor or by contacting Lew Phillips at CAP, 322 Crab Orchard Road, Lancaster, Kentucky 40446, ph. 606-792-3051.

School Entrance Age Rules Have Changed

Parents that plan to enter their children this fall in first grade or kindergarten should be careful not to overlook the new state law that requires a child to be five years of age by September 1 to enter kindergarten and a child to be six years of age by September 1 to enter the first grade.

If your child will be five years of age between September 1 and December 31, and you wish to enter him in kindergarten or a child will be six years of age between September 1 and December 31 and you wish to enter him in the first grade, you may request an application at the office of the county school superintendent on Richmond Street in Mt. Vernon. The application is for a readiness test to determine if your child will qualify for the desired program.

A date in April will be announced for the test to be given in each of the elementary schools.

A child that is currently enrolled in either kindergarten or first grade will need not be concerned about this regulation, because they are exempt from the state law.

Children who are six years of age by September 1 must now go to school, instead of seven as it was in the past. These children or you child to kindergarten if their parents give their consent. Without this approval the child must be placed in the first grade.
