EDITOR LOUIS LANDREM was blessed with a full head of hair when we saw him at Lancaster fair last year, but how long he will retain it after getting off the following "Woman's Rights" we will not prophesy.

A bill should be passed allowing those females who are not content with remaining in the sweet sphere for which they were created, to trade, or do whatever they please, but the law should also require that they wear janes breeches, calluses, boots, ride astraddle and be able to chew tobacco and cuss. What is worth doing at all is worth doing tight, and the good, old sisters should be made to go the whole hog or none.

It is the editor's duty to speak of his own as the loveliest town beneath heaven's blue canopy. Speak of the deceased citizen as a fallen oak when he dies of the jim jams. Call a man a prominent and influential citizen when he knows he is the best poker player in town. Speak of the dirty-faced street arab as a bright-eyed urchin on the road to fame. A big-footed, red-headed newly married old maid as the beautiful and accomplished young bride. Call a man who has a few rusty bolts of calico and a pair of overalls, an experienced dry goods merchant. Call a lawyer a leading light of whom the profession ought to be proud, when he knows him to be a pettifogger. Oh, it's nice to be an editor. —[Ez.]

LIVINGSTON.

Miss Lena Bentley left last week for an extended visit to relatives and friends in Louisville, Glasgow Junction and Stanford. Grandpa, instead of stiles now is wearing a long frown.

Mrs. Angie Smith has returned from a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hiatt of Wildie.

Mrs. F. M. Garrett is visiting her parents near White's Station. Mr. Garrett spent Sunday with her.

B. L. Banks, the handsome Knight of the Grip was with our merchants Saturday.

Mr. C. Williams, of your town, was here Tuesday.

Tom Pettus has returned home after a visit to his brother, L. A. Pettus.

We are glad to learn that W. I. Sparks and his excellent family will move to our town, and realize the fact that Mt. Vernon's loss is Livingston's gain.

Johnson, the cow coroner, of the L. & N., was here this week. So was B. N. Roffer Tuesday.

R. A. Sparks spent Sunday in Richmond with his mother. Walter Saunders accompanied him.

Mrs. M. J. Godin's store house is completed and goods are arriving daily. We wish Mrs. Godin abundant success in her new undertaking.

Joe McClure, of Crab Orchard was here Tuesday buying lumber of our lumberman, W. R. Dillon.

The Literary Society has gotten over Xmas at last. It met last Friday night, but owing to the inclemency of the weather, only a few were present, but it will meet again next Friday night with an interesting programme. All are invited to attend.

Mrs. W. B. Dillon is visiting her mother, Mrs. Bettie Brodhas in Lincoln county near Stanford.

Wix Dillon was in Pine Hill Tuesday on business, with his No-way Public stamp.

Mrs. Russel Dillon has returned from an extended visit to her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Tucker at Maywood. Russ went for her Sunday and they returned Tuesday.

J. A. Craft of Louisville was here the first of the week.

Messrs Steel and Wilson of London, were here Sunday.

Miss Carrie Lair has returned home after a visit to her sister, Mrs. G. D. Cook, and brother T. R. Lair, an enterprising citizen of our town, who came here a few years ago. By honest dealing, industry and economy he has accumulated the most valuable property in this city which he has rented for many hundred dollars per annum. Contemplates leaving us in the near future to improve some property he owns near Wildie.

We very much regret to give an such a good citizen as Tobe, but trust that peace and prosperity may ever follow him and his worthy family.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe. O'Donnell, of Lebanon Junction are visiting Mrs. O'Donnell's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Raines. Mr. O'Donnell had the misfortune to get his foot severely mashed a few days since by making a coupling. Though very painful we are glad to say he will not lose his foot.

We want to correct brother Walton and others and give them to distinctly understand that the shooting of the Mullins' and Langfords in which King was shot, occurred in your town (Mt. Vernon) and not in Livingston as reported by the press.

[Some Livingston man who look it upon himself as a "special" by wire and mixed up the whole affair. Ed.]

JOHN McKEEZE

RED "O" on label of your paper this week means "you owe for it." Send the money along we want it.

William McClary, who mysteriously disappeared from his home here two years ago, returned a few days since to the parental roof. He traveled extensively during his absence.

W. T. Davis, who was foremost on the Republican, is now on our force, is a good boy, and one that attends strictly to duty, and is a man whom our people regard as a good citizen.

A surprise pound party was given to Rev. J. C. Carmical Wednesday night, the birth day of Mrs. Carmical. Some forty persons were on hands and every one took a present along. A very enjoyable time was had by all.

Our foreman, S. C. Franklin, has been afflicted with that dreadful trouble of the death—otherwise called the "grip" for some days and this office has been in a stew on account of immense amount of job work.

The shy and unbecoming trick that was attempted yesterday in the sales against Hiza and Pete Langford fell with a deep thud, and the Court that the defendants and counsel brought would not do it serve. Did he?

Dr. Harry M. Bark, Optician, of Cincinnati, who has been visiting our place for some years and fitted many of our people with spectacles to their entire satisfaction will be at Joplin Hotel on Saturday and Monday, Jan. 22nd and 24th to meet his old and new customers.

Mrs. Walter F. Downing

Wife of Millionaire Downing Dying at Lexington, Ky. After a wayward Career

She was Miss Malvina Southern, of Quail, this County. She was Noted for Her Beauty and CAPTIVATING WAY.

Lexington Special. Lying at the point of death in a Lexington resort is the wife of a Boston millionaire. She is a native of this State, and while in Chicago some years ago was introduced to the millionaire by a Lexington turf man. At that time she possessed social standing and rare personal beauty.

At the meeting, while living in Boston the attentions of a French Count, to her caused a reputation and her husband sued for a divorce. It was not granted. The wife then went to New York and with the Count, it is said, lived up the money that she retained. He then deserted her. From New York she drifted to Cincinnati, where she cut quite a figure in sporting circles. She then drifted to this city some four months ago with a young horseman, and has been on a protracted spree since her coming. She will be taken to her husband's bedside. She is said to be the daughter of Allen Southern, of near Quail, this County, and at one time went to school to Dr. E. J. Brown.

W. M. Owens, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

Oh, how we missed the SIGNAL. O. M. Wallin began a select school at Norton school house, Jan. 3rd.

Wheeler Seals will begin a writing school at the Cummins' school house Wednesday Jan. 5th.

W. L. Payne and Mrs. Charley, of Altamont, Ky., visited his sister Mrs. Nancy J. Searcy, at this place Christmas.

John Cummins and sister Mary, returned home last week from a two weeks visit to their sister at Gray.

D. W. Casteel and wife of near Altamont were the guests of James Payne during the holidays.

There was a candy party at Jas. Payne's Christmas night, also one at W. H. Cummins' New Years night, and a good time reported at both places.

Miss Carrie Searcy returned from a visit to her uncle W. L. Payne at Altamont, accompanied by her cousin Charlie, New Years day.

M. S. Cress has moved to his mother's near this place.

The writing school at Cummins' school house is getting along nicely, with Mr. Wheeler Seals teacher.

Born to the wife of J. J. Bray on the 10th, a son, and within one hour mother and child were both dead. Both were buried in one coffin. She leaves a husband and eight children. The family has the sympathy of all.

J. J. Hayes visited Rev. A. K. Gloch, near the Dick, Saturday and Sunday.

Le Litch child of Wm. Price is very ill and is not expected to live.
