

BULLER ROUTED.

Main Army of the British Meets With a Disastrous Defeat.

Gen. Buller Is Surprised as Commander-in-Chief of the Army in South Africa by Gen. Lord Roberts.

London, Dec. 19.—Gen. Buller met with a disastrous defeat at Chieveley camp Friday. In an attempt to cross the Tugela river he was surprised by the Boer forces, and in the battle that ensued Buller lost 11 big guns. The losses in Gen. Buller's brigade were heavy. The 14th and 66th field batteries also suffered severely. Loss last night to the British army has caused gloom all over Great Britain.

London, Dec. 19.—As a result of the cabinet meeting following the important measures were decided upon. Field Marshal Lord Roberts, V. C., has been appointed commander-in-chief of South Africa. Lord Kitchener, of Khartoum, is to be in command of the whole of the reserve, which is not yet incorporated, will be called upon. The 7th division, now mobilizing, will proceed at once to South Africa. The reinforcements of artillery, including three howitzer batteries, will be sent. Buller has been authorized to raise local mounted corps in South Africa. A considerable mounted force from England will be sent out. Nine battalions of militia, in addition to three which have already volunteered, will be asked to volunteer for foreign service.

London, Dec. 19.—"Bobs," as Lord Roberts of Kandahar is familiarly known, is a name to conjure with in Great Britain, and that Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener are considered the right men to retrieve the disastrous condition in South Africa is amply evidenced by the more cheerful tone of all the war discussion Monday morning. In spite of the attempt of the authorities to gloss over the suppression of Gen. Buller, the fact remains that the same appointment can not be regarded otherwise than as a penalty for his failure. A semi-official communication says:

"The disposition to regard the change as a reflection on Gen. Buller is entirely erroneous. As the forces engaged in South Africa are naturally appointed to the supreme command."

The communication then instances the successive victories from the Tugela to Gen. Buller. In spite of the plausibility of the argument, everyone recognizes that it is not the whole truth. The friends of Gen. Buller see in the heading phrase of the cabinet a suspicious pun and they picture many conciliatory and ingratulating letters, with blanching faces, telegraphing to Roberts and Kitchener to come and save the empire. While, perhaps, these are overthrown, there are no indications that the prodigious exertion which the government considers necessary to crush the Boer, and the evidence shows that even Gen. Buller prescribes the extreme gravity of the present aspect of affairs.

General Lord Roberts, the new commander-in-chief, and his staff will sail for South Africa on the steamer Dunnotar (Sat. Saturday).

Cairo, Dec. 19.—Lord Kitchener, who was appointed chief of the staff of Gen. Lord Roberts, of Kandahar, the new commander-in-chief of the British forces in South Africa, will arrive Oudintarn Tuesday and will leave Friday. He will start for Cape Town as soon as possible.

London, Dec. 19.—A coincidence in connection with Lord Roberts' appointment at the present juncture is the circumstance that he was similarly appointed commander-in-chief after the British defeat at Majuba Hill. On this occasion, however, it is not likely that he will reach South Africa to find peace negotiations between his falling and arrival.

The Daily Mail hears from a bitter, reliable, correspondent that Gen. Buller, after a stiff fight, crossed the Tugela river. The correspondent also states that Gen. Methuen's communications are cut.

The war office declines either to confirm or contradict the report telegraphed by a correspondent of the Daily Mail that Gen. Buller has crossed the Tugela river and that Gen. Methuen's communication has been cut off.

The war office Monday evening posted a revised list of the casualties in the battle of Magersfontein, giving 31 additional killed. The British forces are responding with the utmost alacrity to the official notice. Lord Roberts may be better prepared to meet with some success from 20 to 30 miles from each railway station. It is reported that many officers of the volunteer force are being called up to be sent to the front.

MAINE DISASTER VICTIMS.

Bodies Buried in Colon Cemetery, Havana, Will Be Removed With New Landed Coffins.

Havana, Dec. 18.—The United States battle ship, Texas, Capt. Sigbee commanding, has arrived here, and Capt. Greene, commander of the naval station, has conferred with Capt. Sigbee with regard to the removal from the Colon cemetery of the bodies of the victims of the Maine disaster. The present intention is to remove the remains with as little ceremony as possible. The work of disinterment began Monday morning. Each coffin will be enclosed in a metal casket and be surrounded by a disinfecting compound. The caskets will be removed during the night to the naval wharf, where they will be under guard until all is ready for removal to the battle ship which it is expected will take place Wednesday night or Thursday at daybreak. The Texas will then leave at once.

Father Chadwick will identify the coffins as they are taken from the ground, having a chart showing the exact location of each.

Havana, Dec. 18.—A gang of fourteen grave diggers, who were superintended by Chaplain Chadwick and Dr. Maroon, began the exhumation in Colon cemetery Monday of the remains of the victims of the Maine. As the coffins were raised to the grave side the remains were immediately placed in tin lined coffins prepared with lime and charcoal bottoms, after which more lime and charcoal were used and then the coffins were carried a few yards across the cemetery, nailed down and hermetically sealed the lids, the names being distinctly painted thereon.

Chaplain Chadwick, using his chart, kept a strict account in each instance. Forty coffins exhumed Monday were carried to the cemetery chapel. Two watchmen are on duty for the night. Twenty-five soldiers and about as many other spectators were present.

TWO HEAVY FAILURES.

The Produce Exchange Trust Co. and Hencez Aliza-A Co. Appearance Their Suspensions.

New York, Dec. 18.—The Produce Exchange Trust Co. of this city, closed its doors Monday. A notice upon the door says that the company has suspended payment pending an examination of its books.

The Produce Exchange Trust Co. was organized a couple of years ago with a capital of $2,500,000, and had a reported surplus and undivided profits at this time of over $2,800,000. Its business was chiefly with merchants, tradesmen and corporations in its immediate vicinity. It had been designated by the banking department of the state as a legal depository for safe money deposits and it acted as well as for the funds of savings banks and state banks.

The following statement of its condition was filed with the Produce Exchange Trust Co. Monday: Liabilities: Capital and surplus, $5,000,000; individual deposits, $1,928,000; trust fund, $2,500,000; to banks, $1,700,000; total liabilities, $11,528,000. Total assets, $11,350,000.

New York, Dec. 18.—The suspension of the Henry Allen & Co., bankers and brokers, has been announced on the stock exchange.

The firm is not yet prepared to make a statement, but the suspension is attributed to the failure of some of its customers to respond to calls for additional margins made necessary by recent declines. The house has been known as a trader on rather an extensive scale.

Will Rebuild the Theater.

St. Louis, Dec. 19.—Col. John P. Hopkins, of the Hopkins trust, announced Monday that he will rebuild the St. Charles theater, which burned in New Orleans recently. The new building, which will cost $300,000 and seat 3,000 persons, will probably be erected at the corner of Commercial and St. Charles street adjoining the Academy of Music. Col. Hopkins says that work on the new theater will begin as soon as the site has been decided on.

Vacancies in the List of Brigadiers.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Brig. Gen. Robert H. Hays, of the 1st Cavalry, was promoted from colonel of the 5th infantry, has been placed on the retired list. A similar place will be followed in the case of Brig. Gen. Gilbert C. Carter, recently promoted from colonel of the 7th infantry, and now in active command of the regiment in the Philippines. These retirements will create two vacancies in the list of brigadiers.

Successors for John A. Saylor.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The resignation of John A. Saylor, Sen. & Co., of South Dakota, has caused the attention of the Senate to be directed to the question of his successor. The Senate has been informed that the resignation of Mr. Saylor was received by the President on December 15th.

HE MAY ESCAPE.

One of Aguinaldo's General Says the Leader Will Not Be Captured.

The Thirty-Third Infantry Suffered Terribly During the Two Days' March From Cavite to Manila.

Manila, Dec. 17.—Maj. Peyton C. March of the 33d infantry, has abandoned his pursuit of Aguinaldo and has reached Begen in the heart of the Grand Cordillera, where the range is 10,000 feet high and where food is scarce and travel almost impossible.

From native couriers and Spanish prisoners it was learned that Aguinaldo left Bonfoc, in the province of the same name, with three women and two soldiers three days ago, and headed toward, evidently for Bayombing, the province of New Vizcaya, where it is thought he may encounter the Americans.

Maj. March's command was depleted to the fifty men as they marched from Cavite to Begen, so he returned to Cavite December 10. Scattered bands of Macabebes, which have been operating for some time, are being collected with the intention of sending them back to Manila, as there is much trouble among them, and they are not trusted for further mountain work.

Lieut. Chadwick and a correspondent of the 33d infantry, 20 Macabebes, have visited the mountain town of Pampos and received the surrender of a company of insurgents, including three officers, with their arms and ammunition.

Gen. Concepcion and other Filipino officers who have surrendered, have been taken to Vigan. Concepcion, who is cheerful, insists that the insurgent organization will be maintained, even in the districts where the Americans are operating, also claiming that the Filipino leaders can use their troops when they desire. He suggests that the only method of terminating the war is the capture of Aguinaldo and the obtaining of an order from him for the troops to surrender their arms.

Gen. Concepcion's belief that Aguinaldo will never be captured.

Manila, Dec. 18.—Gen. Lawford visited Monday night from Manila with the 1st cavalry and the 25th and 27th infantry, under Lieut. Col. Sargent, to capture San Mateo, where Generoso has 100 insurgents. Gen. Grant has nearly cleared Zambales province. He discovered hidden in Subig bay a steamer, the Don Francisco, of 100 tons, fully equipped and loaded. She is supposed to be the vessel Aguinaldo was keeping ready for his escape. Capt. Layton, of the 23d regiment, has routed an insurgent band in Zamboanga province, killing several officers. Maj. Smith, with his company of 7th, surrounded and captured another band of guerrillas which were terrorizing a large section north. The troops killed several of the band and captured Gen. Hughes has captured insurgent strongholds at Leap and Bonfoc, the navy co-operating. One man was killed and one wounded.

The insurgents in the island of Panay are suppressed.

It is officially announced that Gen. Young reports that he believes the American prisoners, including Lieut. Gilmore, are now in the hands of the United States troops. Lieut. Col. Flowers and Maj. Hunter have been operating with small commands in North Borneo province and it is supposed that one of these has effected the release of the Americans. The report has not yet been verified.

SCARCITY OF SEAMEN.

Young Men of Germany Are Turning to Parading in Preference to a Life on the Ocean Wave.

Berlin, Dec. 18.—With the rapid growth of the German navy and the German marine there has been an increasing scarcity of native crews, especially in the case of the young sailors. A few years ago Germany furnished a large portion of the crews of English vessels but to-day the number of foreigners. This change is due to the fact that the young men of Germany are turning to parading in preference to a life on the ocean wave.

It is already foreseen that the death of the German navy will be contemplated this difficulty will be increased by the fact that the young men of Germany are turning to parading in preference to a life on the ocean wave.

FIFTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

First Session Will Be Held at Washington, D. C., Monday, Dec. 19.

Washington, Dec. 18.—Senators Mr. Patterson (D. D.) today introduced a resolution directing the secretary of the navy to supply the senate with information as to the progress of the construction of the battleships authorized for the United States, for finally or informally procured the Philippines, at Manila. Mr. Chandler (N. H.) objected to this resolution. Following this objection Mr. Patterson and Mr. Chandler and a sharp bill over the resolution of the former, demanding from the secretary of war an explanation of certain of the terms against Gen. Sherman in his contract of the Court d'Alene treaty.

If you desire to take a Holiday trip, at reduced prices to any part of the L. & N. will gladly take you, if for months or years you haven't seen your mother and father, you should now take advantage of the one and one-third rate given and see them as it will cause them to weep tears of joy, if you want to restore your health by drinking in the refreshing and exhilarating breezes from the Gulf of Mexico, go there in a sleeping car over the L. & N.; if, perchance, you would like to visit the wonders of the Mammoth Cave, it will take you there. We should all witness the sights of that historic and ever memorable place, Fort Thomas, out only a short distance from Cincinnati; or perhaps it might be well for you to take in the marvelous City of St. Louis or peep into the thriving City of Memphis; if so, buy you a ticket over the L. & N. Railroad and go.

The Financial Bill passed the house last Monday by a vote of 190 to 150 which commits the Republican party unequivocally to the gold standard. Immediately after the passage the leading silver Republicans held a large and enthusiastic meeting at which they issued a strong party appeal as follows: "To the Members of the Republican Party Who Still Believe in Bimetallism: The passage by the House of Representatives to-day of the gold standard and Bank Carey Bill exactly as agreed upon by the Republican caucus and without the opposition of a single Republican vote, marks the culmination of a policy long and carefully pursued by certain influences in control of the leadership of the Republican party, and justifies the action of the men who in 1896 refused to remain in that organization after the adoption of the St. Louis platform.

The Republican platforms of 1888 and 1894 had been unequivocally in favor of bimetallism and the use of both gold and silver as standard money. Nevertheless, it was apparent several months before the assembling of the National Convention of 1896 that the machinery of the Republican party had passed wholly into the hands of the banking and creditor interests, and that it was the purpose of the latter to commit the party to the advocacy and achievement of the gold standard. Against this danger the underground and many other Republican bimetallists at that time vainly attempted to arouse the masses of the party.

After reviewing the plank which declared for both gold and silver in 1896 and rectifying the dangers of the gold standard, it concludes: "Thus, fellow citizens, the scheme we denounced in 1896, is tearing consummation. The policy that was denied by the Republican party in that campaign stands now confessed. Millions of you who voted the Republican ticket in 1896 would not have done so had you believed your party destined to mean to be the agent of the forces that now dominate it. Millions of you were bimetallists in 1896, and remain so to-day. How can the president have made you and thereby seem to have been bimetallists, now that as a consequence of his despotic personal rule your honest bimetallism, your honesty is about to be handed to the enemy and control of the party is about to pass to the enemy?"

While there is talk of weddings and rumors of marriages, while we thirst for the amber waters of some rippling rill as it pebbles its way to the sea and the heart yearns for better things while meditating over the past when the cup of youth flowed freely, when we could climb Rockcastle county to a day or night in an hour, when we were scouting around among the young gas-couriers of 'em now and then; when over Cedar hill to double double with two as gay as lads as ever went a sparkin'. In those halcyon days we would rather have spent an hour listening to Rev. Jim Chestnut or Bro. Jim Elliott at Buckeye than to have drank from golden goblets at the Broadway church in New York. Those dear souls have passed out and others have taken their places. But we remember them with sincere appreciation to-day and so do many others. The evening shadows of the closing days of '99 are fast falling around us; and we are about to again celebrate the Birth Day of the Son of the Virgin Mary. During the year we have had many things for which we should rejoice. Let us bring to some weary, discontented and prodigal soul a gift of joy. Speak a kind word to a wayward boy and thereby elevate and purify him; let us send some poor, unfortunate, ambitious young man or woman a good book from which they can read and be filled with knowledge. Cheer the children; and if they be thirsty, give them drink; if they be hungry, feed them; if they be ragged and without garments to keep them warm, then clothe them and great will be the reward.

Nothing is more dangerous than the coming together of powder and fire; and nothing will produce an explosion quicker. Nelson Hamilton, of Jessamine county, has some good wood to do in which it was necessary to do some blasting. He brought a keg of powder to before the fire to get a part of it to use. His little-four-year-old son picked up a small amount and tossed it in the fire. The explosion threw some embers into the powder and a terrific explosion immediately followed. The father and three children were knocked insensible. The walls spread and the ceiling came down and stopped about half way up the walls, thus fastening all the doors securely. The house caught fire and a neighbor came and broke in one of the doors and got the tortured parents out, but they were so badly burned that they died in a few hours. When we think of how near death's door Jim Colyer was by reason of a similar explosion last summer, on the county road, and the great danger Lee Edmund was of losing his life in his heroic effort to rescue Jim, we should be more careful and by no means whatever, take it near any fire. Let us be especially careful in the use of this deadly compound.

SURE CURE FOR CROUP

Twenty-five Years' Experience Use Without a Failure. The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to croup, distress it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child can come hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many the most of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to see a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by Theo. Wesley, Mt. Vernon Ky.
