ONE MAN'S OPINION OF ACTION TAKEN ABOUT RECREATION RIGHTS ON LAKE LINVILLE

First of all, I think it very selfish to restrict such a great recreational potential as Lake Linville. I think it is one of the finest things that has happened to Rockcastle County in very long time. Not everyone fishes, swims, water skis, bank fishes, picnics, sunbathes, sightsees or just relaxes on the water, but most people do some of these things. Ask yourself how many of these apply to you or some member of your family.

Who is to say the man's family with a fishing boat should take off his gasoline motor, abandon all other rights and have exclusive rights to Lake Linville? What about the family who doesn't like to fish, but invested from $10,000 to $80,000 anticipating being able to use the lake to enjoy their investment and have a family outing. Does he not pay just as much water bill as anyone else living in the City or on a servicable area depending on Lake Linville for water supply. Do they not pay just as much taxes, maybe more?

Granted it, personally, I like to fish. I don't want to never have and never hope to. My main interest in water activity is fishing, but let's look at this for a minute. Every fisherman knows that when the weather is at its hottest, fishing is at its worst.

Why send our people away from good old Rockcastle County? Why not let everyone have his time or turn? After all, this is not a one-man lake, six or more take or share the lake. Every county resident, every city water user should have a say. We live in The Greater part of the county. We use, not abuse, what we have.

We all know some rules and guides need to be set-up to go by. These rules need to be enforced, but let's don't be selfish, let's all be together not to destroy so great a potential as Lake Linville.

Always your friend and Neighbor,
Jack Cromer

City Ordinance stands as of October 15, 1975, your property could be devalued as much as one-third, one-half or even more!

Ever since the Boat Dock has been leased, it has made the City of Mt. Vernon money and helped to keep them in the black, and not had to borrow money. This record stands for itself. In my opinion, if Lake Linville lost money for the City, which it certainly does not, the cost would still be cheap compared to the potential it has.

If the Dock is closed, the money already invested will be lost. I personally don't want to see this happen.

Now, pertaining to safe drinking water. Is it not a fact that Lake Linville's water, processed and bottled in Vernon's modern water plant, tests as good and in almost every case better than anywhere in the state? This can easily be checked by asking for a report from your local Health Department.

Let's all work for the development and betterment of Rockcastle County. We need to upgrade every potential in our community and not set it back by twenty years or so. Draw a circle around Rockcastle, list the towns and cities with growth in industry, employment, recreation and leisure in Vernon, London, Somerset, Danville, Lancaster, Berea, and McKee, Ky. I wonder if actions such as this one pertaining to Lake Linville doesn't reflect the one of our many examples as to how our neighboring cities are so far ahead of us.

I am for Rockcastle County. First, how about you? I encourage you to voice your opinion at the next regular Council meeting, October 13, 1975 at 7:30 p.m. at the City Hall in Mt. Vernon.

This is nothing personal, directed to any individual or group. I just believe for the betterment of the whole county, Lake Linville needs more study before drastic measures are taken to restrict it.

Always your friend and Neighbor,
Jack Cromer

OUR DAILY BREAD... GREAT BEGINNINGS

OUR DAILY BREAD... great beginnings. Good bread begins in the Great Plains of America. High quality wheat becomes high quality flour for family foods as well as for commercial bakers.

This year, the largest wheat crop ever produced in America is forecast by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA)—2.1 billion bushels.

Durum wheat is used almost exclusively for macaroni, spaghetti and other forms of pasta—and it's exported around the world, who can be eating American wheat in any pasta dish in Rome.

Because hard red winter and hard red spring wheats are particularly high in protein and strong in gluten, these types are milled for use in quality yeast breads and hard rolls. White and red winter wheats are used for quick breads, pastries and crackers.

Many of the flours home-makers buy are blended and are generally the "Enriched All-Purpose" indicates the flour contains enough protein to form an elastic framework that is elastic enough for cake and strong enough for breads. Since All-Purpose flour is finely milled, it is not necessary to sift before use.

Once you've baked that loaf of bread—or bought it—careful storage can extend its life. When you buy the bread from the oven, let it cool the prescribed length of time. Then wrap in moisture-vapor-resistant material.

Bread stales less quickly in a breadbox at room temperature than in a refrigerator; however, in hot, humid weather it is better stored in the refrigerator to prevent mold. If you wish to hold any baked product for more than a few days, eating quality is best maintained if kept in a freezer.

While chefs across the country are celebrating the giant 1975 wheat harvest in a great variety of sandwiches, you may want to commemorate it in your own way. Here's a basic muffin recipe with 4 variations:

- Muffins (12 medium size)
2 cups un sifted flour
1 tsp. baking powder
1/4 cup sugar
1 tsp. salt
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 cup milk
1/2 cup fat, melted, or oil
- Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Grease muffin tins. Mix dry ingredients thoroughly. Combine egg and milk; add fat; add to dry ingredients. Stir until dry ingredients are barely moistened. Do not overmix. Batter should be lumpy. Drop muffin tins full of batter. Bake 20 to 25 minutes until browned as desired. (About 160 calories each).
- CHERRY-VALE MUFFINS: Use 1/4 cup maraschino cherry juice to replace 1/4 cup of milk in basic recipe. Add 1/4 cup chopped, well-drained maraschino cherries and 1/4 cup chopped nuts with the liquid to the dry ingredients. (About 190 calories per muffin).

Cranberry-muffins. Decrease milk to 1/2 cup in basic recipe. Mix the milk with 1 cup whole cranberry sauce. Drain off liquid and measure. Add more milk, if needed, to make 3/4 cup liquid. Stir cranberries with liquid into dry ingredients. (About 185 calories per muffin).
Jelly or jam muffins. Using the basic muffin recipe, put half the batter into muffin tins. Put 1 tsp. jelly or thick jam in each. Add rest of batter. (About 175 calories per muffin).

Food Clips
If you're preparing a frozen turkey — thaw it in the refrigerator or in a watertight bag in cold water. Allow 1 to 2 days in the refrigerator for thawing the whole turkey or for the turkey breast — 3 to 9 hours for the turkey leg, or 12 to 18 hours for the bonedless roast.

Did you know that it takes seven ounces cans of kidney beans to equal one 10 lb can? If you're making chili, the large can is usually more economical too.

The depth of the pan actually makes a big difference in your baking time. Use the appropriate size and number of pans when following a recipe. Cured and smoked pork requires refrigeration unless frozen. Always cook in the label. Cured sausages should be wrapped and stored in the refrigerator.

Barbecuing! To maintain evenness of cooking over charcoal — space coals about an inch apart. Add new charcoal around edges and wait until it is glowing before pushing it toward the center.

Does your outdoor cooker have a hood or a dome? If you use it, always make sure it will speed up the cooking process.

Fresh pork sausage is made from ground pork blended with spices and other seasonings. It must be cooked before eating. Do not nibble on raw pork sausage.

How many calories per serving? Turkey — breast 160, thigh 180, drumstick 140, quarters — while there are approximately 280 for leg quarters.

DOWN ON THE FARM

By: Roy G. Brown
Assistant Vice President
Cumberland PCA

Summer is coming to an end and fall and winter will soon be here. This means we'll need a good supply of feed for our livestock to take them through to next spring when we can again turn out on grass.

Here are a few things we can do to lower the cost of feeding those cheap cattle this winter.

First, we need to put up all the silage and hay we can. Corn stover after corn picking can be chopped and baled to help in feeding for low-cost feed. Another thing we can sow all the cover crop with small grain to furnish winter and early spring grazing.

Also, keep plenty of salt and minerals before cattle at all times. And, be sure animals are treated for lice and worms and kept free of parasites and disease, because cattle with parasites take more feed and still come out in the spring weak and in poor condition. Some may even die.

If you need to sell some of your cattle, cut close, selling the heavier unprofitable ones. As the heavier cattle bring a better price than the light-weight ones. Down on the Farm.

Le Year's Son or Daughter A 4-H Member?

Strong growing 4-H clubs and 4-H members must have parents interest and active parent cooperation. To help parents, the 4-H club will have their 4-H experiences need to have more parents taking part more actively in club work. Parent cooperation is the mean parent take-over of the club or parent domination of the local 4-H leader or teacher. This does not mean that parents are welcome to work with 4-H clubs and teachers as a leader. Every 4-H parent and every potential 4-H parent should be informed of the aims, policies, projects, activities and events of the 4-H club program. Parents should feel welcome to take part in club activities.

Without a doubt, boys and girls with interested parents will take a more lively interest in their 4-H Club work.

Think about waste

It doesn't make sense to waste electric energy. It's costs more. Poles cost more. All prices are rising.

Sit and stow about it if you want, but facts speak. Our electric energy is generated by burning coal. And coal costs have soared out of sight. Pollution fighting equipment costs a fortune. And you know who finally has to pay the bill. Think about it. Then contact your electric cooperative for help in saving electric energy.

Electricity is too good to waste!

Mrs. Thompson Named Ky. Arthritis Chairman

Mrs. Jay W. Thompson has been named chairman of the 1975 campaign for the Kentucky Chapter of The Arthritis Foundation.

The announcement was made here today by H. Scott Davis, president of the Kentucky Chapter.

Mrs. Thompson lives in Brodhead where she assists her husband in the training of Tennessee Walking Horses. They also have one daughter, Christi, who also enjoys working with horses.

"September 25, 1975 is the kick-off date for the 1975 campaign," Mrs. Thompson said. It will reach its climax with the annual door-to-door Arthritis Victory March on November 16, 1975.

aches and pains," Mrs. Thompson asserted. "It is America's number one crippler." Here in Rockcastle County alone, there are twelve hundred people of all ages afflicted with arthritis so severely that they require medical care.

The Kentucky Chapter is committed to helping these arthritis victims. It provides patient education through public forums and free literature, professional education, Rheumatology Grants at the University of Louisville, Rheumatic Diseases Laboratory, Louisville, and three Clinics in Louisville at St. Joseph's Infirmary, Norton Children's Hospital and General Hospital. Also, two Clinics in Lexington - The Arthritis Clinic in the Medical

DAR MEETING POSTPONED

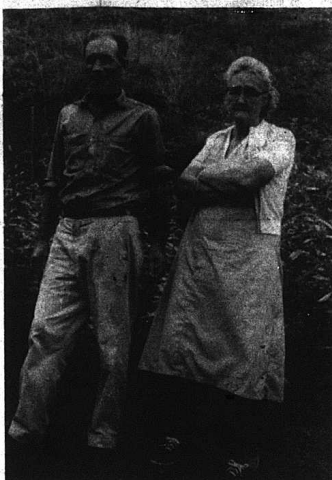

The DAR meeting scheduled for September 19 has been postponed until September 29th when it will be held at the home of Mrs. Jean Towery in Conway.

The speaker will be Joe Lambert, who will speak on "Appreciation of our Constitution." All members are especially asked to be present.

Adult Education Classes Meeting at Brodhead

Adult Education Classes are meeting at Brodhead elementary school every Monday and Thursday evening at 8 p.m.

If you are interested in continuing your education to complete the 8th grade or obtain a GED high school diploma, please attend these classes or call Verla Scott at 758-8199 for information.

Clarence Tussey, 68, of Livingston has been missing from his home since Tuesday, September 9th when he went to buy a lawn mower from a neighbor. He was last seen on Pinesy Branch Road about 9:15 a.m. and hasn't been seen since. Sheriff Manuel Shepherd, the Tri-City Rescue Squad and volunteers have been conducting an extensive search for Mr. Tussey since last Tuesday evening. Anyone having information concerning Mr. Tussey's whereabouts, please contact Sheriff Shepherd or the Rescue Squad.

Mrs. Aline Davis, Librarian, tells us that the response to last week's appeal for people to return overdue books was so good that she probably won't have to publish a list of names. So, keep up the good work, and the three fine minutes I promise to look up the ones I have out...

I received two letters this week from Mrs. James Watson of Route 1, Mt. Vernon and Lloyd Hammons of Route 4, Mt. Vernon concerning the new regulations on Lake Linville put into effect by the Mt. Vernon City Council.

For some reason, I began asking around as to who these people might be and come to find out, no one, including the post office or tax commissioner's office, knows them. We don't normally make an attempt to verify the names of those persons sending us Letters to the Editor, but in this case, I am glad we did because I have the distinct impression I was being played for a sucker.

Of course, if Mrs. Watson and Mr. Hammons let me know they do in fact exist, I will submit my most abject apologies, via this column, and publish the letters; but, I do think it only fair that I insist that a letter to the Editor not only be signed but also signed with the person's real name...

Please take the time and trouble to fill out the questionnaire on the front page of this week's Signal and return it to us. It could have some effect on the question of the use of Lake Linville and it behooves us all, as good citizens, to take the time to voice an opinion on this seemingly highly controversial issue...

Voice Your Opinion

Since the Mt. Vernon City Council's decision Monday night, September 8th to prohibit Lake Linville to anything but electric motors, paddles or sailboats, considerable controversy has arisen among the citizenry of the county as to whether or not this decision was a wise one.

We pretty much made our position clear in last week's Signal and don't think it would be fair to rehash that on the front page this week, so we have decided on another course of action by which our City Fathers might be guided.

The matter of the ban on gasoline engines has to come up at next month's Council meeting for a vote on an ordinance which would establish the use of a gasoline engine on the lake as a crime and set out the fine so the matter will, more or less, be up for a vote again.

Perhaps if a majority of the people feel strongly enough that the Council was hasty in making this decision and let them know this, they might reconsider their action. Likewise, if a majority of the people in the county support the Council's decision, they will be on stronger ground for their action. Either way, you can have an active say so in this matter by simply filling out the form below and returning it to us at P.O. Box 185, Mt. Vernon, Ky. We will compile the results and publish them in the October 2nd issue of the Signal. The Council will hold their regular monthly meeting on Monday night, October 13th.

1. Lake Linville should continue to be operated as it is presently with no restrictions as to the use of gasoline engines.
2. I support the City Council's action in banning gasoline engines from the lake.
3. A compromise should be worked out providing for all types of recreation on the lake which would insure boaters' safety and a quality water supply.

Rockets Fall to Everts

The Rockcastle Rockets dropped their fourth game last Friday night in as many starts when they were downed by a strong Everts team 40-0.

Everts scored in each of the four quarters for the win in spite of being penalized time and again - in fact, two Everts touchdowns were called back because of penalties.

Offensively, the Rockets couldn't get much going. Leading gainer for the Rockets was freshman David Pensol who picked up 14 yards in 4 carries. Hackworth, who picked up 110 yards last week, was held to minus two yards this week in 4 carries and Earl Hammons was also minus yardage, losing 9 yards in 11 carries. Others picking up yardage for the Rockets were David Owens, 3; David Whitehead, 1; Dusty Carlisle, 4; Shane Bullock, 3 and Jim Sawder, 5.

Defensively, Shane Bullock led in tackles with 60 Ovens, Larry Baker, Hackworth, Mark Holbrook and Jeff Carr were all credited with 4 each; David Hunt and David Whitehead got 2 each and Bobby Boring was credited with 1.

On kick-off returns, Owens got 15 yards; Earl Hammons, 20; Carlisle, 5; Bullock, 10 and Rick Anderlin, 12.

This Friday night, the Rockets will play their Homecoming game against an always strong Sayre team. Game time is 8 p.m.

New Officers of the Mt. Vernon High School Association were elected at last Saturday night's annual meeting held at the high school. Elected were, from left: Mrs. Rose Caudill of Hazard, co vice-president; Mrs. Dessie Nicely Donovan of Mt. Sterling, co vice-president; Mrs. Onie Smithers of Irvine, president; Mrs. Laura McHargue, treasurer and Mrs. Geneva Crauford, secretary.

Homecoming Candidates - The Rockets football team recently selected representatives from each class as candidates for Homecoming Queens and her court to be crowned this Friday night at the Homecoming game between Sayre and Rockcastle County. One girl will be chosen from each class except for the senior class from which the Queen and another one will be chosen. Candidates are, front row from left: Maria Stewart, Kelly Bales, LaVelle Hammons, Velina Feltner, Nora Winstead and Kelli Payne. Second row, from left: Sherry Woodall, Karen Harding, Jill Stevens, Jennifer Hansel, Mary Ann Bussell, Debbie Rose. Back row, from left: Shirley Riddle, Sheila Robinson, Sheila Bradley, Jo Ann Riddle and Kim Cornelius.

Billy Ould, 20, of Pine Hill, was taken to the University of Kentucky Medical Center & Lexington Tuesday night, after the truck, which he was driving was struck by a car on the Interstate between the Renslow Valley and Durr interchanges at the construction site. Mr. Ould's truck, on the left, was struck by a car driven by Donna Evans, 26, of Livingston, Tenn. Two passengers in the car, Donna Evans, 20, and John Kerry, 26, both of Livingston, Tenn. were also in the Evans car and Miss Evans was also taken to the UK Medical Center at Lexington. State Trooper Danny Coleman, who investigated the accident, said that the Evans vehicle crossed into the southbound lane and struck the Ould truck head-on. The accident occurred about 7 p.m. Wednesday. Trooper Coleman charged Evans with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants. The car on the right in the above photo was driven by Evans.

Republican gubernatorial candidate Robert E. "Bob" Gable brought his campaign to Rockcastle County Monday. The visit began with a meeting at the Rockcastle Steak House where Mr. Gable met with local Republican leaders and then continued throughout the county. Mr. Gable will face incumbent Governor Julian Carroll in November's General Election. Identifiable in the above photo are, clockwise around the table are: Ernest Mason, Gable's Campaign Manager for Rockcastle County; Rep. Harold DeMarcus, Joseph E. Lambert, Carl Williams, Money Ed Cummins, Sheriff Manuel Shepherd, Shelley Mullins and Mr. Gable.

New Pharmacy Opens - Mr. and Mrs. Howard Saylor of Mt. Vernon have opened a new pharmacy in Mt. Vernon, located on Richmond Street. Mr. Saylor is a 1969 graduate of Mt. FRANKFORT WATCHLINE

The state has come up with a new wrinkle in its method of handling strip mining permits. While the new plan does not, as it cannot, provide for any compensation for surface owners, it does set up a process by which a surface owner will no longer receive notice by being rumbled out of his bed one morning by the sound of an earthmover at his back door.

In effect, it goes a little way toward compensating for the loss in the Court of Appeals of the latest attempt by the General Assembly at quashing the long-controversial broad form deeds.

That legislative action would have required potential strip mine operators to get the written permission of the surface owner before a permit could be issued.

The court struck down that law, effectively reiterating its earlier position that it was a violation of the property rights of the mineral owner to require the surface owner's signature, a signature that would in most cases have to be purchased.

Effective this week, John Stanley Hoffman has ordered his Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection to notify all surface land owners before strip mine operations on their property can begin, along with nearby property holders affected.

The action also seems to encourage surface owners to appeal permits if they feel they are being wronged. There is already a little-used hearing process in the law.

"I didn't realize it was so bad," said Hoffman, but he made no bones about admitting that his new regulation does serve as a substitute for the broad form deed legislation that died in the courts.

Had that law survived, Hoffman admits there would have been no need for him to take that step.

"It just makes it cleaner if people know at the outset what is happening and that they have the right to appeal.

Basically, coal operators have no added burden because of the new process since they had to supply the names of affected surface owners under the current law anyway. Hoffman says he has just added one more responsibility for his department.

A little publicized ruling last January in Campbell Circuit Court, now being appealed, could throw a monkey wrench into state and local tax gathering.

Because of the ruling, in all Kentucky counties except Campbell, the Homestead Tax Exemption for the elderly is being computed at $7700 this year.

Judge Frederick Warren ruled in January that the increase from the $6500 fixed in the Constitutional amendment of several years ago is unconstitutional.

The increase was ordered by a state law to allow for cost of living increases since the original was passed.

It was Warren's opinion that the only way to hike it is by another vote.

The Kentucky Department of Revenue has ordered the $7700 exemption in all other counties and it seems virtually every city is using the higher figure. Use of the higher figure has also allowed a tax rate adjustment to compensate for the loss of income to the government unit.

Revenue Commissioner Maurice Carpenter says his department has made no contingency plans to handle the massive readjustment if the high court upholds Judge Warren.

"If the court says it is unconstitutional and those people have already paid their taxes, I don't know what will come of it," Carpenter said.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,

Being a citizen of Rockcastle County, I would like to express my thanks to our former county judge and fiscal court for making it possible to see our county roads and neighbors' hillside free of litter, even if it was for such a short period.

My family and I were very proud that our county had decided to clean up and it was really looking good, especially the first year when Rockcastle Sanitation had someone to clean around the container areas.

I would also like to thank the Rockcastle Sanitation for their effort and for the good job they have done.

In my opinion, this period is the only time I have seen that our county roads and neighbors' hillside were so clean of properly thrown away garbage.

Now, I would like to ask our present officials to help us. We need to know where to have our garbage taken care of properly without having to take it to a neighboring county for them to dispose of. To me, I see no reason why the people of Rockcastle County shouldn't be concerned enough to take care of our own responsibilities and we sure don't want to throw it back on our neighbors' hillside again.

We were proud of our Revenue Sharing Garbage Program and think it was used wisely and beneficially for every citizen of the county.

Whoever was responsible for the removal of the garbage containers should have specified a place to take garbage to before the containers were removed.

As was stated before, our county shouldn't be concerned enough to take care of our own responsibilities and we sure don't want to throw it back on our neighbors' hillside again.

To lose this program seems a shame when you look back to the roadside litter before the program was started. I remember, it very well. Already, garbage bags are being thrown on the sides of the roads. It burns me to know that a man from another county "might" be hired to pick up garbage when so many people are out of work in our own county. By this, I mean I was confronted by a man from Dubank by the name of Lee Gunn. If, saying he was recommended by Ernest Mason to begin a garbage route in Rockcastle County, I am opposed to this and I hope that majority of swimmers are not children, as anyone would would observe could see.

The response by Mayor Mullins about an alternate of providing a swimming pool could very well be the beginning of something for the children of our town and county. I am very sure each person with children would be able to swim in a decent place without the danger of being wounded by broken beer bottles or insulted by abusive language from someone under the influence of alcoholic beverages.

We are very lucky to have councilmen like Mr. Hillard, Mr. Alcorn and Mr. Farrett.

Dear Editor,
I do not live in Rockcastle County but, like many other boat owners, the recent ban of gasoline engines on Lake Linville, will have an adverse effect on me.

Lake Linville offered recreation for a lot of people, a reasonable distance from home. It seems the motion to ban engines was made hastily without discussion on alternate solutions or consideration for the people who have invested thousands of dollars in boats and equipment to use on the lake.

I would also seem that property values along the lake would be affected if no recreation is offered.

I believe solutions should be discussed that would allow ample time for fishing and boating safely.

Thank You,
Gary Miracle
Berea, Ky.

Dear Editor,
Concerning the changing of rules on Lake Linville - first, I want to say I think this was one of the greatest decisions made by the City Council thus far, for the welfare of each person using the water system.

I think most people using the water will agree with the decision made by the majority of the Council. Even though the water is filtered, it would be impossible to remove all impurities from the water created by the use of gasoline engines and other pollutants. When health is at stake, why choose pleasure. Why wait until a health problem does come - which it probably has by now if each person would admit the facts.

I feel like the people owe a great thanks to Chester Hillard for bringing the matter to reality and to the Councilmen who voted for the new rules.

Also, I feel that swimmers should be prohibited from using the Lake as a public swimming facility. Since the biggest

Now there's a simpler way to dial long distance.

We've made it even easier to dial long distance. And with the millions of dollars we've spent for new equipment, a lot more reliable, too.

Now, instead of dialing three numbers to make a long distance call, dial "1" + the number for all station-to-station calls inside your area code.

For all station-to-station calls outside your area code dial "1" + the area code + the number.

Oh, you'll still need to go through the operator for long distance calls such as person-to-person, credit card, collect, or calls for time and charges.

But for everyday station-to-station calls, our new direct distance dialing system means faster, more dependable service. And best of all, it saves you money.

HOMEMAKERS' CRAFTS CAMP WELL ATTENDED— Six Extension Homemakers Club Members were among the 125 women who attended the Wilderness Trail Area Crafts Day at the J.M. Feltner Memorial 4-H Center on September 6. They participated in making the following crafts: hurricane lamps, rock painting, dried flower pictures, quilting, paper tote, patchwork, wall hangings, quilting and broken glass pictures. Those attending in the above photo were, back row, from left: Emily Crawford, Lorraine Nowland, Clara Proctor and Ella Mae Martin of Brodhead; Brodhead Willing Workers. Front row, from left: Noretta Thompson and Carol Martin of the Quail Homemakers. Noretta Thompson was in charge of teaching the group making hurricane lamps.

The Rockcastle County Extension Homemakers held their annual meeting Friday, September 12. The Association consists of members of all Homemakers Clubs in the County. Highlights of the meeting included a potluck dinner, the Brodhead Elementary School. A program on "Kentucky Our Land" was presented by Elizabeth Mullins of Brodhead and "American Women in 200 Years" was also presented as part of the meeting. "Kentucky in our Nation's Bicentennial." Recreation was presented by the Town and Country Homemakers. Election of the County Officers was also held. Officers for 1975-76 are, from left: Joyce Craig, president; Martha Hanna, area representative and Charlotte Bullock, secretary-treasurer. Also elected was Deloris Albright (not shown) as vice president and membership chairman.

MVHS Assn. Meets

Approximately 150 alumni of Mt. Vernon High School and their guests, gathered for the annual reunion of the Mt. Vernon High School Association last Saturday night at the Rockcastle County High School.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Ruby Cooper Adams, president and the Invocation was given by Mr. Ethel Griffin. Cletson Saylor, principal of RCHS, gave the welcome and Charles R. Parsons, Superintendent of County School, gave a brief history of Mt. Vernon Schools.

Class of 1918, gave a history of the Mt. Vernon High School Association's history and Mrs. Inelda Cooper of the Cooper School of Dance gave a history of Dance and students from the school provided entertainment.

Also included in the meeting was an article written by Mrs. S.C. Franklin of Mt. Vernon which was a description of Mt. Vernon through the use of the surnames of families living here at the time Mrs. Franklin's exercise demonstrates how closely family names are connected with commonplace objects and trades.

Reprinted below, for your perusal is a copy of this description:

"Our town," she writes, "is located on Hills, Craigs, Hills, Banks, Cliffs and Buggs. Our tradesmen are mostly Carpenter, Coopers, Bakers, Tailors, Cooks, Millers, Weavers and Wagons. We are doing Nicely.

One Ponder at our scarcity of Birds, there being only of Martins, Parrets, Wilson's snipe and the Meadow lark. Our people enjoy games Day and Knight, such as Ball, Race and telling Riddles. We boast of one Champion Rider. Our sportsmen may be seen Anglin for Fish and riding to the Hunt.

Daily you may see a Bowman going out to hunt game, such as Piggas, a favorite with the Gentry, who are fond of juicy Hams. There are Herds of Bulls. Some hunt with Spears for such game as the Lyon in his Lair, the Wolf and the Mix.

Small Field crops are about Alcorn, of small Cobb variety. We also have some Wheat, Kane and Rice. We have good Pikes, beautiful Holmes and good Barnes. We have splendid churches with Parsons to Shepherd the flocks, not to mention Hysingers, Harps and Harpers.

We have plenty of Cox, but no cock fights. Our people are proud of their talents. Among our staples are Ballant's flour, Pea Berry Coffee and Welch rabbit. Paynes are being taken to cut Prices and beef defense stamps instead.

The Moore we practice self-denial, the more we help Uncle Sam win the war; Hasty action will put Warren enemy on the run Hellard."

How Parents Can Help 4-H Members

1. Let boys and girls know you are interested in their work.

2. Listen to their ideas before you give suggestions or advice. Then let them do their own work.

3. Talk with them about selecting their projects. Help them get their firm, lumer, fabric or whatever they need.

4. Encourage them to work on their project.

5. Encourage them to take part in club and county 4-H activities (talk meet, demonstration contests, fairs, achievement programs and club meetings).

6. Encourage them to complete their 4-H records and reports.

7. See that they have transportation to club meetings and county events.

8. Attend county 4-H activities.

9. Get better acquainted with the 4-H leader or teacher. See if there is anything you can do for the club.

10. Never forget that the real objective of club work is to develop your sons and daughters into finer citizens. It is not necessarily raising the best calf or winning first prize in the speech contest that counts most. Such experiences may be good - but they can also be bad if they have the wrong effect on the attitude or character of your boy or girl.

Northern Kentuckians generated 300,000 tons of solid waste last year. That averages out to about a ton for each person in Northern Kentucky.

Mt. Vernon Christian Church Observes First Annual Homecoming

Approximately 400 persons attended the Homecoming held Sunday at the Mt. Vernon Christian Church. A Homecoming service was held in the afternoon preceded by lunch served on the church grounds by members of the church.

The Mt. Vernon Christian Church observed her 145th anniversary on September 14th with an all-day gathering on the church grounds. 381 people attended the morning worship service and estimates range up into the four hundreds as to the total number of persons who came throughout the meal and afternoon program. Former members and friends traveled to Mt. Vernon from states as far away as Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Florida and New York. The oldest living members were recognized and three former ministers of the church were present. These ministers were: Charles G. Roe, who served here from 1927-29 and is now retired and living in Lexington; Brad Coffey, who is now ministering to the Sandusky Christian Church in Tulsa, Oklahoma and Marion Parkey, presently pastor of the Community Christian Church in London. Several children and family members of other former ministers were also in attendance.

The day concluded with an afternoon service in which greetings from former ministers were read, special music was presented by several groups and a time of memoriam was observed.

"The Road To Yesterday" was the theme for this year's celebration and a display of pictures and Bibles was set up in the church basement for the crowd to enjoy. The people indulged in reminiscing, eating and laughter but, as at all such gatherings, a tear or two could be seen as we remembered the rich heritage of our past. The group also enjoyed a summary of our history given by Linda Ramsey Ashley, who recently completed writing the history of The First Christian Church.

1975 marks the beginning of the second fifty years that the Mt. Vernon Christian Church has met in this present building. The minister at this time is Ernie L. Johnson and he states the future goal of the congregation in this way. "It is our prayer that we shall continue to serve our God in the best way possible throughout the next fifty years."

Three former ministers to the First Christian Church in Mt. Vernon were present last Sunday for the church's Homecoming. They were, from left: Bro. Brad Coffey, Bro. Marion Parkey, Bro. Ernie L. Johnson (present pastor of the church) and Bro. Charles G. Roe.
