

19-year-old Rebecca Mink of Mt. Vernon was seriously injured in a two vehicle crash on Hwy. 25 at Renfro Valley Friday morning. Mt. Vernon police Sgt. Barry Adams, shown above, said that Miss Mink apparently pulled her car from the Curry Oil Shell Station into the path of the above truck driven by Daniel Abney, 39, of Renfro Valley. The two vehicles ended up sitting in the lawn of the Marathon station across the road after the impact. Miss Mink's mother Vicky, said that her daughter would probably be in the intensive care unit at the University of Kentucky Medical Center for two more weeks. She suffered five broken ribs, a punctured lung, a fracture shoulder and her spleen had to be removed. Mr. Abney and his two children were not injured.

Water association signs contracts

Last Thursday was a day of celebration for the Rockcastle Water Association.

The signing of contracts with the construction companies for nearly 70 miles of water lines in Southern and Eastern Rockcastle brought to a focus 14 years (or more) of work by the RWA Board.

Laurel Construction, of Laurel County, will build the water tank at Climax and D.F. Bailey Construction Company of Owensville, will construct the lines.

The work will begin immediately with a projected completion date set for December 18th, 1999.

The new lines will add approximately 350 customers to the already existing 120 homes served by RWA.

The project is being financed with grants of $1.6 million, a loan of $704,000 and member fees of $98,000. The total project is $2,438,000.

Not present, not guilty

It took a Rockcastle County District Court jury less than ten minutes Thursday to acquit a Red Hill man of assault.

The odd thing, the man on trial, didn't even show up for court.

His attorney, John Clontz of Mt. Vernon, defended his client anyway.

Jim Guinn, 52, of Red Hill was charged with assault on February 13, 1997, after Earl Vaughn of Conway swore out a warrant for him.

The case involved a Mac Truck that both men apparently had an incorporated the Climax 3-Links Water Association, which later became the Rockcastle Water Association.

In 1994, Joe Martin chaired the RWA, followed by David Ballinger, who served as president until 1997. During that time the Climax line was

Missing person found

Rockcastle Deputy Sheriff Darrell Doan said Tuesday that a Calloway woman, who was reported missing has Thursday...has made contact with her family.

Colleen Langford, 48, of Calloway was reported missing by her husband, Gary Langford Sr., last Thursday morning.

Doan said that Mrs. Langford contacted family members on Monday and told them she was alright and opened the Orlando book begun. The task of the board, representing the members, is to construct and maintain water distribution service in geographically challenged sections of the county.

The work began with a vision for Cont. to A-13

Doan said Mrs. Langford's name was removed from the missing person's file.

Local man indicted for Smith homicide

A Rockcastle County man was indicted Friday by the Rockcastle County Grand Jury for reckless homicide.

Steven Wayne Miller, 31, of Cove Branch, was indicted in connection with a December 19, 1998 shooting death of Marvin Smith, 35, of Mt. Vernon.

According to court records, Smith was shot once in the face with a .38 caliber pistol at the home of Jason and Dana Cromer on the Boone Cromer Road at Pongo. He was pronounced dead at the scene.

According to the indictment, Miller is accused of "recklessly handling and firing a gun thereby shooting Marvin Smith and causing his death."

At the time of the shooting Miller told police that it was an accident. Miller is free on bond, until his next court appearance in March.

A London man was also indicted

County fails to pay Clark

They said a controversial insurance tax would cure their financial woes - but it certainly hasn't cured them all, not yet.

The Rockcastle County Fiscal Court was informed last week by Rockcastle County Attorney Jeff Burdette that none of the promised 11 payments had been made to Clark County for an outstanding $18,389 bill for housing Rockcastle County juvenile offenders in 1997.

In January of last year, Clark County sued the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court and the county attorney worked out a payment schedule of approximately $1,600 a month to pay off Clark County and settle the suit.

The only problem is that the county never paid any money to Clark County and now Clark County is asking for their money again.

Burdette said Tuesday that he

Homer Edward Creech, 50, of 420 Rush Road, London, is accused of first degree stalking.

According to the indictment, Creech "intentionally stalked Amy Reece Stump, of Mt. Vernon, by contacting her by handwritten notes and by explicitly or implicitly threatening her thereby intentionally placing her in reasonable fear of serious physical harm."

Child abuse charges filed

A Rockcastle County man is behind bars this week after being arrested for beating his ten-year-old stepson.

Steven H. Still, 32, of Rt. 3, Mt. Vernon was charged with Assault First Degree (Child Abuse) and Criminal Abuse First Degree (Child less than 12 years old), after Mt. Vernon school officials called police to school on Thursday afternoon.

According to Mt. Vernon police Sgt. Matt Bryant, the ten-year-old's buttocks area was so severely bruised and abused that he required medical treatment at the Rockcastle Hospital.

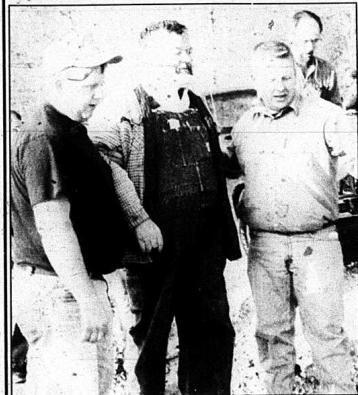

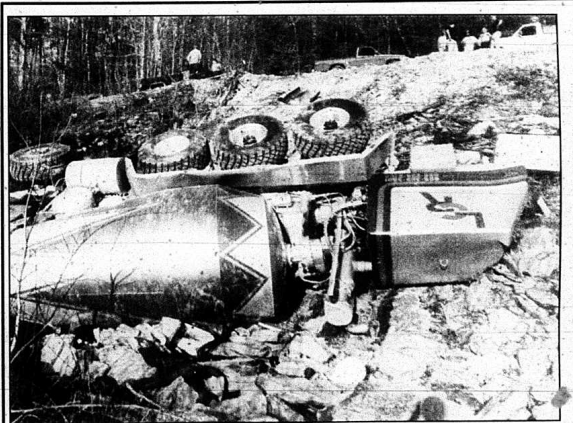

Bryant said the ten-year-old told him that his stepfather, had spanked him too hard the night before with a thick wooden paddle, "that wouldn't break."

Bryant's report also stated that the ten-year-old's mother, Rebecca Still, reportedly told police that her husband did use a wooden paddle to strike the ten-year-old five or six times around 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday night. Her statement also said that she told her husband to stop striking the ten-year-old.

During a court appearance on Monday, Still entered a not guilty plea. District Judge Walter McGuire, also lowered Still's bond from the original $25,000 to $10,000, ten percent, meaning Still can get out of jail by posting a $1,000 in cash.

A brand new Lincoln County Ready Mix truck was completely totaled in a wreck at Possum Kingdom Saturday afternoon. Deputy Sheriff Charles Gray said that the roadway apparently gave way and caused the truck, which was loaded with concrete, to go over the embankment. The driver Russell Jenkins, of Waynesburg was slightly injured in the accident. Members of the Brodhead and Mt. Vernon fire departments responded to the 4:30 p.m. accident. The Change of My Life Chapter 4

The day I visited Alice Mize and introduced her to my baby was an important day in my life for the relationship that began that day and me through some pretty rough times. She became a second grandma to Judy, and when Rodney was added to our family three years later he was taken into fold as a little brother to Albert. Since Judy and Rodney didn't see their own grandmas very often they needed the love and attention Alice gave so freely. While we were chatting and getting acquainted I met Albert, the little three-year-old brother of Melvin and heard the story of how she was raising her two grandchildren.

Her only daughter, Lucy, had died after a difficult birth to Albert and left Alice with a tiny baby and three-year-old Melvin, to raise along with her own son, Bill. So she had three young boys to take care of plus the store, post office, housekeeping and gardening.

The day I met Albert, he was a cute little blond three-year-old wearing a short dress, which was the style at that time for boys until they were big enough for overalls. By now he was about big enough for the big event of, "brides" but the dresses were still usable and everyone back then had learned that as long as anything was usable it was not to be thrown away. He was a shy little fellow but that didn't keep him away from the baby and when he came up and shyly touched her hand she smiled at him. From that day till now they are almost like brother and sister. So now we have connections in the community and I felt like I had a real family. The feeling was mutual. I was accepted by her children and grandchildren as a member of the family and until this day I am treated as one by those remaining. Two sons, Emmet and Bill, are still living as well as several grandchildren, including Albert, Calvin and Conley and one granddaughter, Tommy. J. Hamp, Alice and two of their sons, and their wives, Reece and Lula, Jay and Betty plus two grandsons, Denver and Melvin, the pretty little red land now and was fascinated by the acres and acres of trees I could see as far as my eyes could reach.

By now I had almost forgotten the mail I had received from my loved ones back in Cincinnati but the memory of it caused me to hasten my steps and I was soon home reading it. It was from Mom, Dad and Katie, my youngest sister. This gave me the ending to a perfect day and I was again ready to take up my duties.

It is wonderful what a long walk with interesting people, a long walk through the hills, beautiful scenery and a letter from home can do to ones morale. Just a few minutes ago I was holding a sleeping baby in my arms, a letter from home tucked in my pocket, picking my way down a steep narrow path between briars and brush that hindered every step while trying to avoid the rocks and chug holes to keep from falling, and dreaming my next duty, fixing the evening meal.

And here I was now ready to tackle, going to the spring, building a fire in the cook stove, cooking supper, putting Judy to bed and I was happy.

This contentment didn't last long though. Before the night was over I was again wishing for the comfort of a real house. Sometime during the night storm clouds turned into a real downpour of rain and it was then we found out we scarcely had a roof over our heads. Judy awakened me by a strangled cry and when I reached for her I felt water all around her. I quickly lit a lamp and pulled her out of a puddle of water; the rain coming through the roof was dripping directly into her face and the rubber sheet under her had collected enough water to form the puddle. By now Mat was also awake and was beginning to move the furniture out of the way of the water coming through the roof. I changed Judy into dry clothes and put her in our bed, then helped Mat move the rest of the pieces to a bed and I saw blood on her little hand where the rat had been chewing on it. Again the lamp was lit to see how badly she had been injured. By now I was shaking so badly I could hardly hold her while Mat got out the first aid kit to put antiseptic and a bandaid on it. From then on she slept between us until we got our new house built and moved into it.

This was the only time a rat had attacked someone while they were sleeping. Just a few weeks before this happened, two of my sisters Thelma and Katie, came down for a weekend visit and we all three had to sleep the same bed in the kitchen. My younger sister, Thelma, wanted the side next to the wall, Katie in the middle and me on the front so I could get up to tend to Judy if I was needed. Well if you don't know how these grown sisters act when they haven't seen each other in several months, you should have been there and seen all three of us sleeping in the same bed, giggling, squirming to find a comfortable position, whispering while trying to make plans for the next day without awakening the sleeping people in the next room, then

Dear Editor:
To Citizens of Rockcastle County:
 Litter control laws are now serious business in Rockcastle County. I was offered some pretty jail time and was ordered to clean up a dump site just because papers with my name on them were found on another man's land.

Everyone should be aware of the litter laws and be very careful that your trash is hauled off by a trash carrier authorized by the county. It will cost you a lot more if your trash winds up in a wrong place like mine did.

Luke Dees

Dear Editor:
 I read the letter to the Editor and the front page story in last week's issue of the Mt. Vernon Signal with interest regarding the location of a much needed animal shelter in our county.

They need to provide shelter and humane care for the abandoned, abused and neglected animals in a service that I welcomed to this county. I have been involved in animal care for fifteen years, the last seven being in Rockcastle County, six of those years working with one of our local Veterinarians. During those years numerous stray animals were dropped for the Veterinarian to humanely euthanize because these animals had no one to care for them.

Citizens of Rockcastle County adopt animals from our neighboring county shelters but don't have the option from a shelter in their own county.

It has not been my experience to witness the so-called "abandoned dog syndrome." The majority of abandoned animals are young pups, or the pregnant dog left by the road side to either be hit by a car or starve to death. If the animal is extremely fortunate, a compassionate traveler stops to assist, this does not happen. These animals are harmless, scared, hungry and homeless.

The decision to become a pet owner should be a carefully made decision. With pet ownership comes a long term, sometimes expensive commitment. Dogs can live for sixteen years or longer and cats sometimes twenty years. Puppies and kittens are fully grown within twelve months. Much expense and time is involved in pet care. In the first 6-8 months, a series of vaccinations are needed to prevent disease, external and internal parasite control, spaying or neutering in addition to their basic needs such as food, water and shelter.

Some animals develop major health problems when they become senior animals, such as diabetes, heart and kidney disease, become arthritic, develop cancer, have loss of eyesight or become deaf, just to mention a few possibilities.

Responsible pet owners spay or neuter their animals to keep down animals overpopulation, commit themselves to provide care for their animals from the day they decide to become a pet owner until the day the animal dies. The need for others to step in and provide outside care would not be necessary if everyone was a responsible pet owner.

I applaud the many pet owners in our county that have adopted many stray animals, myself two dogs and three cats, and all the owners who have done everything required to be called a responsible pet owner. Unfortunately because of the irresponsible pet owner, it becomes necessary for others to care for the abused, neglected, unwanted and abandoned animals.

A dog is excited to see his master all the time, will always greet you with his tail wagging, a sparkle in his eyes and loves unconditionally. He is non-judgmental, never spreads gossip or jealous of his co-workers, is a faithful, loyal friend and companion until the day he dies.

Dogs have been trained to assist the blind to walk, used by law enforcement to find a lost child, sniff out drugs in school locker rooms, locate weapons in our schools, alert the epileptic of an attack, but yet is not wanted next door to a school.

A small group of concerned and caring citizens have undertaken the immense task to establish a safe place for the abandoned and unwanted animals in our county. These citizens need our support and encouragement, not condemnation. Opposition to the proposed site location may have some merit, but the benefits to the county outweigh any perceived risks. The protection, security, and health of these animals as well as to man is a top priority to animal caretakers.

I heartily encourage other concerned citizens in Rockcastle County to support R.A.A.P. in their endeavor to establish a safe haven for the abandoned and unwanted animals.

Millennium-Hysteria Continues

If you are a regular reader of this column, you know that I have tackled the subject of the millennium before. There is still a lot of hype and hysteria being disseminated about the subject, so much so that it deserves another look.

Two events are coming together to create this concern: the millennium of the Y2K problem. The Y2K problem is caused by computers that may not be able to reset themselves from the year 1999 to the year 2000. I will leave the computers to the experts. This column is about the millennium.

"Millennium" means a thousand years. It is most often used to describe the time of history that has come since the birth of Christ. The passage from one millennium to another is thought by some to be the occasion for great events to occur. Some believe that the return of Christ to earth will come at the end of the second millennium after his birth.

The Bible set for the beginning of the third millennium was proclaimed as January 1, 2000. Therefore, however, some problems with this date.

Our calendar of years was not yet invented in the time of Christ. Our system of dating time began hundreds of years after Christ's death. The man who fixed our calendar began the yearly count with what he considered to be the year of the birth of Christ.

Unfortunately, he was wrong in his calculations. Most Biblical scholars, including liberal, conservative and moderate, now believe that Christ was born about 4 BC, several years before the date chosen by our calendar inventor.

If this calculation of 4 BC is correct, then the millennium has already occurred! It happened January 1, 1997, and was generally ignored. That day came two thousand years after the birth of Christ and marked the beginning of the third millennium. (I am indebted to a friend for pointing out this fact.)

There is another problem in this quest to accurately date the millennium. Let us accept that the man who created our calendar correctly established the date for the birth of Christ. If that date, is correct, then the millennium will occur on January 1, 2001, not on January 1, 2000.

The first thousands years A.D. were the year 1-1000. The second thousand years will be the years 1001-2000. The next year (2001) will begin the new millennium.

This means that predictions for the end of the world, the rapture or whatever should really be saved until 2001. None of these will come true on January 1, 2000 because the date does not begin a new thousand years. Instead it is the last year of the old millennium.

If we accept that our calendar maker was mistaken in his calculations, the millennium has already occurred and we should stop worrying.

When someone offers you a prediction for the millennium, make certain to inquire as to which date she is using: January 1, 1997; January 1, 2000 or January 1, 2001. Then ask what factors influenced her to choose this date rather than the others. If she offers no logical reason, you can bet that you understand the millennium far better than she does.

finally drifting into a light slumber. When we reached this stage of sleep my sister, Thelma screamed out and we all hit the floor not knowing what had happened. She was sitting straight up shaking all over, with her hand over her head and blood on it. What in the world has happened in her case from Mat, standing in the doorway, Thelma could hardly answer, but she did manage to say, "Some big furry thing was trying to eat my hand off." She did have a nasty bite but the iodine and bandaids soothed the wound. Now I know rat bites are dangerous but maybe these had lived in the country long enough to be cleaned from the germs of city streets? And remember also, there was no doctor close enough to take care of it anyway. And she lived for many years after that night of fun and fright. Both of these sisters have died of cancer, Thelma five years ago and Katie last March. So these memories are hurting and I long for those good old days again. Neither of them ever forgot that night, and was reminded of it every time we got together and Thelma never wanted to sleep on the outside, where she had more room again.

The next day they got to know first hand what I meant when I said water was scarce and we had to get it

Child Abuse—A Matter of Fact

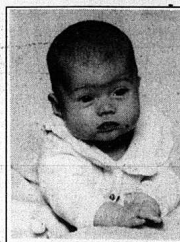

By Peter O. Samples, State Chairman
Abuse and Mental Disorder
Some believe that most abusive or neglectful adults suffer from some form of mental illness. It is estimated that only 10 percent of adults who abuse or neglect children actually suffer from a mental disorder. Most of the other 90 percent can be successfully treated if professional intervention occurs. The reasons why adults abuse or neglect children here are as varied as the individuals themselves. Certain factors, however, such as a lack of parenting skills and knowledge, excessive stress within the family and isolation from the support of family and friends, are known to contribute to the occurrence of abuse or neglect.

To obtain additional information about child abuse or neglect call our hotline number at 1-800-468-8920.

Wow - we can't believe this good looking couple just celebrated their big 53rd Happy Anniversary Mom and Dad. We love you - Margie and George, Tammy, Bobby, Jamie and Josh, Marty, Marsha and Stephen.

Legitimate lenders may require you to pay application, appraisal, or credit report fees for a home equity or mortgage loan, but rarely for other types of loans.

Advertisements that promise loans generally appear in the classified section of newspapers and magazines. Often, the ads feature "900" telephone numbers, which result in charges on your phone bill. Advance-fee loan scams also are promoted through direct mail and radio and cable TV spots. The appearance of an ad in recognized media outlets, such as your local paper or radio station, does not guarantee the legitimacy of the company behind the ad.

You can avoid advance-fee loan sharks. Here's how:

- * Ignore any advertisement of any caller that guarantees a loan in exchange for an advance fee.
- * Never give your credit card or bank account numbers, or Social Security number on the telephone unless you are familiar with the company.
- * Keep in mind, a credit repair company can only obtain a copy of your credit bureau report for you. You can do this yourself for only $8-$10. To request a copy of your credit report contact one of these three credit bureaus: Equifax Information Center at 1-800-685-1111; Trans Union at 1-800-916-8800; or TRW at 1-800-422-4879.

For further information contact the Extension Service at 256-2403.

will be cost shared up to 75% by the FSA Agency. For more information, please contact the FSA office by the deadline of February 26, 1999.

FARM CHANGES

Producers who have purchased or sold land need to contact the local FSA office for proper reconstitution of farms. Remember to bring your deed and/or notify the new owner to do so. Also notify this office of any/all address changes.

MARKETING CARDS

Producers are reminded to return marketing cards to the FSA office immediately after sales.

Producers who had marketing cards at the London Tobacco Warehouse, London, which burned are reminded of the following:

1. furnish the local FSA with tobacco sale bills for report of marketing (sale bills include pounds sold and amount received).
2. request the issuance of another card for additional sales as necessary.

1999 QUOTAS

The 1999 quotas are scheduled to be mailed on Friday, March 19th. When these notices are mailed, all producers are reminded to review the poundage and if you wish to appeal the quota you have 15 days to do so. Leasing of burley tobacco quotas will begin Friday, March 19th and will end Thursday, July 1st. Producers who have 1997 planted and considered planted history (P&CP marketing or transferring of quota) and did not have 1998 P&CP credit are reminded of the 2 out of 3 year rule - to avoid loss of quota there must be P&CP history for the 1999 crop year. Bulletin board space will be provided at the local FSA for those producers wishing to list poundage for lease.

EMERGENCY

CONSERVATION PRACTICES

Producers who signed up and were approved to receive cost share under the emergency conservation program are reminded the deadline to have completed these practices is Friday, February 19th. Producers should file completion of these practices with receipts no later than Friday, February 19th, at 5:00 p.m.

ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY INCENTIVE PROGRAM (EQIP)

The FSA Office will be holding an EQIP sign up February 1st through February 26, 1999. EQIP funds conservation practices on cost sharing basis for approved technical practices which include but are not restricted to: Waste Utilization, Conservation Crop Rotation, Forage Harvest Management, Prescribed Grazing, Hayland Management and Stripcropping. All practices available.

George Bernard Shaw wrote in his preface to Man and Superman - "This is the true joy in life, the being used for a purpose recognized by yourself as a mighty one; the being thoroughly worn out before you are thrown on the scrap heap; the being a force of nature instead of a feverish selfish little cloud of ailments and grievances complaining that the world will not devote itself to making you happy." When the Kiwanis Club of Rockcastle's Spiritual Aims Committee decided to give a special "Heart Award", the choice of the recipients was not difficult. Bev and Rocky Rockwell have been at the "heart" of the Kiwanis Club for many years. They have both held important offices in the club and have worked an enormous amount of hours making many personal sacrifices of time, money and energy for the betterment of the club and community of which they have become a vital part. The first objective of Kiwanis is "To give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than the material values of life." The spiritual aims committee is pleased to focus attention on individuals such as Bev and Rocky for their exceptional contribution to Kiwanis and for their generous disposition, kindness, courage and sweet spirit which makes up the central part of the heart. Presenting the award is Sue Hamm, chairman of the Spiritual Aims Committee.

Beef Marketing

Cattle prices cycle throughout the year and Spring months usually see top prices. Each Spring with feeder calf prices reach their highs, farmers start to question, "What if I had Fall calves ready to sale instead of the Spring calves just being born?" Many factors go into deciding what is best for your farm.

Madison County Beef Producers are Doing to Market Heifers" and "Properly Vaccinated Feeder Calves Through Special Sales". Each beef meeting this year will take time to discuss what farmers are doing to market their cattle instead of depending on traditional markets. For an opportunity to see how feeder calf prices are effected by feed yards and packer plants, beef producers may participate in a special Marketing Program to be held on Monday, Feb. 25. This meeting will be at 7:00 p.m. at the RCHS Vocational Agriculture Dept. Farmers will get hands-on experience in trading cattle and see how this affects markets.

The second in a series of Beef Production Meetings will deal with Spring vs Fall Calving by looking at the pros and cons of each. Local producers are invited to take part in this meeting on Thursday, February 18, at 6:30 p.m. in the Extension Office meeting room. This meeting will also have a 15-minute discussion on "What

Advance-fee Loan Scam

By: Hazel Jackson
County Extension Agent for Family and Consumer Science

"The company guaranteed I would get the loan if I paid $250. processing fee. I never got the loan and they won't refund my $250." An advance-fee loan scam artist advertises or calls you saying that he will be able to get or arrange a loan for you, regardless of your credit history. Legitimate lenders rarely guarantee a loan or extension of credit before evaluating a consumers creditworthiness.

LEAP conducting Economic Development study

An economic development study of Rockcastle County will be conducted for Livingston Economic Alternatives in Progress (LEAP). Peggy Pollard, a Housing and Urban Development intern from Eastern Kentucky University will be leading this initiative. "Through working with folks and other organizations in the community we have really moved LEAP's projects ahead," explains Frank Van Hoeve, Interim Director. "This study will investigate our community development opportunities for Rockcastle County."

"This is an exciting project and I look forward to discussing ideas with folks in the community," states Ms. Pollard. "One part of the study will be to publish a brief questionnaire in this paper, asking for your ideas in the next two weeks," Pollard added. As well, a survey questionnaire will be mailed to the LEAP member list.

LEAP is a community economic development organization coordinating projects including the Rockcastle Farmer's Market, Country-Side Crafters Union and Heifer Project.

Several officers of the Kiwanis Club of Rockcastle and one Key Club member recently attended a Division 6 K-T District Council meeting in London. The workshop reviewed the practical applications of materials and training - Kiwanis International has developed for club leaders in positioning Kiwanis for the 21st Century. Rockets lose by four to Barbourville

The 14-11 Rockcastle Rockets traveled to Barbourville Tuesday night, meeting a tough Tiger team for the 74-70 loss.

The Rockets led at the end of each of the first three quarters, going into the fourth quarter up two, 52-50.

Layne Nicely got the Rockets started after a Barbourville three with two made free throws.

The Rockets big men, Matt Brown and Blake Calhoun, each added a bucket to give the Rockets the 6-5 lead.

Andrew Cash hit a three, and Calhoun and Jacob Burdette both scored to give the Rockets the 13-11 first quarter lead.

Burdette, who had a fine night, scored first in the second quarter for the Rockets.

Cash scored Rockcastle's next five points to give the Rockets their biggest lead of 20-14.

Barbourville scored the next five points, but Brown hit two free throws to keep the Rockets up three, 22-19.

A defensive steal by Burdette led to a layup for him in which he was fouled. Burdette hit both free throws.

Calhoun scored to keep the Rockets up five, but the Tigers scored before Nicely made a good defensive steal and was fouled on the layup.

Nicely hit the first of two free throws, giving the Rockets the 27-23 lead.

Barbourville took the 28-27 lead with less than a minute to go but Cash hit a three from half court and the buzzer to go into the locker room up two, 30-28.

Barbourville scored the first seven points to start the third quarter, going up 35-30 over the Rockets.

A timeout called by Coach Cash did not help, as the Rockets committed two turnovers on their next possession before Nicely hit a three at the 5:20 mark to stop the Tiger run.

Cash added another three and then a two to pull the Rockets to within three, 41-38.

Nicely added two points and Cash hit two of three free throws to keep the Rockets alive.

Andrew Hammond came in the game to give the Rockets a steal, and Nicely hit a three to bring the Rockets to within two, 47-45.

Burdette hit a basket to tie the game at 49-49 at the 1:29 mark.

A big offensive save by Cash to Nicely led to Nicely's third three of the quarter to put the Rockets up 52-

Lady Rockets beat Corbin and North Laurel; are 21-4

The Lady Rockets are now 21-4 in the season, posting wins over Corbin and North Laurel in their last two outings.

Against Corbin Saturday, in a make-up game at RCHS, the Rockets were down 20-17 at the end of the first quarter but came back to double Corbin in scoring in the second quarter 16-8 for a 33-28 halftime lead. The second half saw them post 40 points to the Redhounds 32 for the final 73-60 margin.

Junior Brandy Reynolds was the leading scorer with 21 points; Tiffany McClure got 13; Jessie Rickles 12; Suzanne Brown and Blake Roberts, 10 each; Jessica Cobb, 6 and Amber Falin 1.

Tuesday night, the Rockets hosted a good North Laurel team and emerged with an impressive 71-53 win.

Brooke Roberts drew first blood with a basket and Tiffany McClure followed for a 4-0 lead for the Rockets. However, North Laurel came back and scored the next 9 points of the game. It was the best offensive display the Jaguars would put on in the game, but it was short-lived as the Rockets came back on two baskets and a free throw by Roberts, two baskets by Brandy Reynolds and seven straight points by sophomore Jessie Rickles to hold a 20-12 first quarter lead.

The Rockets extended their 23-3 run into the second quarter and held a 42-22 lead at the half.

The Jaguars came out hustling more in the third quarter and managed to cut the lead to 14 at 48-34 but McClure came through with five straight points and Reynolds got a free throw to put the lead back to 54-34. Reynolds added a basket and North Laurel got one to keep the Rocket lead at 56-36 at the end of the third period.

North Laurel outscored the Rockets 8 to 2 to begin the fourth quarter and get the lead down to 58-44 before Brandy Reynolds canned a free throw and Suzanne Brown put in five straight points to put the Rockets up 65-45. Jessica Cobb, Rickles and McClure chipped in two points each to finish the Rocket scoring in their 21st win of the season.

All five Rocket starters were in double figures with Brown and McClure each getting 15; Roberts got 14 (13 in the first half); Rickles scored 13; Reynolds 12 and Cobb 2.

Jayvees Win Two

The Lady Rocket Jayvees outscored the Corbin Redhounds 10-0 in the first quarter and cruised to a 39-12 win in the first game Saturday.

Angie Boreing led the scoring with 9; Ashley Lawson got 8; Amber Falin 7; Amber Denny 6; Angie Ford 3; and Rachelle Hammond, Amanda Barnett and Leslie Carpenter, 2 each.

Tuesday night, the Rockets had a harder time with North Laurel hanging in the game until the 56 second mark.

the end of the first quarter; 15-14 at halftime and 21-30 at the third quarter stop. North Laurel went ahead 22-21 to begin the fourth quarter but Amber Denny answered with a basket to put the Rockets back on top 23-22 and Amber Falin then went to work, scoring the last eight points for the Rockets (six at the free throw line) and giving the Rockets the 31-27 win.

Falin was the only Lady Rocket in double figures, getting 14 (8 from the charity stripe); Angie Ford got 6; Ashley Lawson 3 and Rachelle Hammond, Angie Boreing, Leslie Carpenter and Amber Denny, 2 each.

Rockcastle Jayvees end season 11-7

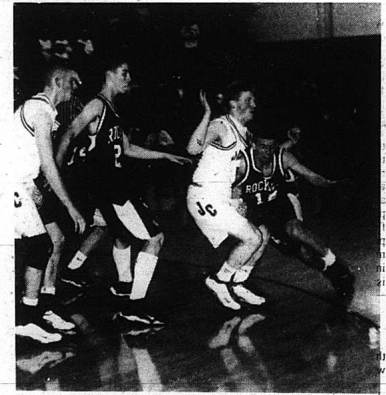

The Rockcastle Jayvees ended their season Tuesday night with the 39-15 win over the Barbourville Tigers.

The Jayvees led at the end of the first quarter 10-8 and did not look back, keeping the lead at the end of each subsequent quarter.

The Rockets had their biggest lead at halftime, 26-18 behind strong three point shooting by Shea Taylor and Jeremy Neeley.

Barbourville made a run in the third, cutting the Rockets lead to three, 34-31, at the end of the third. Good ball handling, patience and pressure defense in the fourth kept the Rockets alive for the 39-15 win.

Applications being accepted for WHIP

The Wildlife Habitat Incentives Program (WHIP) is a U.S. Department of Agriculture conservation program that pays 75% cost-share to land owners to improve, create and restore wildlife habitat on their land. The primary focus of Kentucky's WHIP of 1999 is the restoration and creation of early successional habitats.

- 1. Planting of native grasses, shrubs and wildlife-friendly introduced grasses and practices eligible for cost-share under Kentucky's 1999 WHIP.
- 2. Creation of wetland habitat is a secondary focus of the program. Other practices that are eligible for cost-share include filter strips, field borders, wildlife corridors, tree plantings, riparian buffers, forest openings, wildlife watering holes, and fencing to exclude livestock from streams, woodland, wetland and wildlife lands.

Since WHIP is competitive, an environmental evaluation and ranking process is used to determine which applications provide the most habitat benefits. Applications with the most habitat benefits will receive funding.

EQIP in Kentucky receives $2.10 million for 1999

Eight approved EQIP priority area projects in Kentucky will receive a total of $1,400,687 in assistance. The remaining funds will be for statewide concerns in areas not covered by a priority area and assistance for EQIP education.

David G. Sawyer, NRCS State Conservationist, stated, "Kentucky received less funding for 1999 than 1998. However, we are able to fund more projects as higher ranked projects were less."

The EQIP application period is continuous and the next ranking period will be on February 26, 1999. If the remaining funds are not allocated at that time, another ranking period will be announced.

EQIP is a USDA program created by the 1996 Farm Bill to address agriculture's priority natural resource and environmental concerns.

Conservation District Cost Share Program announced

The Rockcastle County Conservation District will be accepting requests for cost-share funding under the Kentucky Soil Erosion and Water Quality Cost Share Program beginning February 1 and extending through February 26.

The Kentucky Soil Erosion and Water Quality Share Program was created to help agricultural operations protect the soil and water resources of Kentucky. This program is a result of legislation passed in the 1994 General Assembly. This legislation established annual cost share funds to be administered by conservation districts at the local level and the Kentucky Division of Conservation at the state level. Priority for request approval will be given to animal waste related problems and agricultural district participants where pollution problems have been identified. Funding for the program is provided by the Kentucky Department of Agriculture as a result of an increase in the pesticide products registration fee and several fund approprisons is used to determine which applications provide the most habitat benefits. Applications with the most habitat benefits will receive funding.

"Last year's WHIP program was very successful in improving and restoring wildlife habitats," said David Sawyer, State Conservationist.

"This year, we will continue cost-share practices to preserve additional habitats."

Applications must be submitted to the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) by the close of business on February 26, 1999 to be considered for 1999 program funding.

To apply for WHIP contact Randall Templeman, District Conservationist, at 256-2525 Ext. 3 and/or visit your local USDA Service Center or your local wildlife biologist with the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources.

Under EQIP, USDA can provide cost-share assistance to land users for up to 75 percent of the costs of certain environmental protection practices such as grassed waterways, filter strips, manure management facilities and wildlife habitat enhancement. USDA may also provide incentive payments to encourage producers to apply selected land management practices that are not currently in use on their land.

In 1999, approximately 65% of the funds will be used by the eight locally identified priority areas and 30% will be used for statewide natural resource concerns. Funding will include, animal waste management, soil erosion and wildlife concerns.

Please contact your local USDA Service Center located on Hwy. 150, Mt. Vernon or call 256-2525 for additional information.

priations to both the Department of Agriculture and the Division of Conservation by the General Assembly. Practices eligible for cost share are: Animal Waste Control Facility; Animal Waste Utilization; Vegetative Filter Strips; Integrated Crop Management; Pesticide Containment Facilities; Sinkhole Protection; Heavy Area Protection; Rational Grazing System Establishment; Water Well Protection; Forest Land Erosion Control System; Strip Inter-cropping System; Stream Crossing; Riparian Area Protection and Environmental Grants.

Eligible applications will be approved for funding based on the ranking criteria and availability of funds during the regularly scheduled May meeting of the Kentucky Soil and Water Conservation Commission. The maximum cost-share rates are 75% to 60% on individual practices or up to $7,500 per year per application on all practices except animal waste practices which have a $20,000 per year per applicant limit.

bond was also set at $10,000, or ten percent cash.

Donovan W. Mullins, 25, of Mt. Vernon was also indicted for a fourth offense driving while under the influence.

His indictment stemmed from an August 4, 1998 traffic stop by Mt. Vernon Police Sgt. Matt Bryant.

Mullins posted a $5,000 ten percent cash bond or $500.

Both men will be arraigned in March.

the funding of the current RWA project. He and his staff helped with "heart." William and Renee McClure led the lobbying for that initial grant.

RWA President Bob Fields said, "We are all volunteers in this association and that means that we have needed help with many aspects of the project. We are deeply indebted to many people who have worked, as a part of their job, to guide and direct our efforts. Carl Clontz was involved with the RWA from the '80s and has shared wise counsel with us. Doug Moore, Rural Development representative for South Eastern Ky., has been remarkable with his knowledge, patience and experience. We gratefully acknowledge that this agency has done outstanding work to facilitate rural areas meeting their needs. Darway Stewart of Crawford, Crawford and Stewart Engineering has worked with us daily. He has gone way over and above the "Call of Duty." The folks who serve us through the Division of Water have been helpful and willing to listen to our pleas. The Public Service Commission has kept us "in line" graciously. State Rep. Danny Ford represented our cause and mediated on our behalf often. Baz Caroltis worked alongside us with concern. Many thanks to each of the above as well as those behind the scenes in those offices."

The RWA Board members have continued through good times and bad to do their work primarily for the good of the community. "As a board we affirm in particular the outstanding work of Jo Cook who has the title of secretary but contributes untold hours to carry on the business. Dell Ponder, Vice President; Bruce Cook, Treasurer; Martin Cox, Joe Martin; Joe Clark; Murphy Martin; Glen McGuire; Sherman and Anna Mae Mize; Sheila Collins and David Ballinger serve as Board members currently. I appreciate each of you," Fields said.

A special message to the RWA members who are awaiting for water. "My family and I know how difficult it is to live without running water. I understand your frustrations and disappointment with the slowness of the RWA in getting this project moving. We have all done the best we knew to do but I have grieved over the delays and the high cost to you in time, inconvenience and money. Speaking for myself and the board, we regret any and all problems caused. We have learned much which I hope will help us with future projects. We affirm that water will indeed flow in your homes by the year 2007," Fields said.

Any questions should be directed to Bob Fields at 256-2469.

The following first appeared in the Mt. Vernon Signal on November 30, 1906. It was recently transcribed from microfilm of that issue of the Signal. With these submissions, I am sharing these gleanings with the Signal's present readers. Note: This is a continuation of the November 30, 1906 material that was published in the February 4, 1999 issue.

LOCAL NEWS
Ron Roach, of Manchester, has accepted a position as stenographer in Atty. C.C. Williams' Office. The fill and crossing near Whitehead's mill, which connects Taylor Avenue with the main Mt. Vernon and Somerset road, will soon be completed. The Baptist and Christian churches will each have Xmas trees, there will be an Xmas eve and the other Xmas night. We were not informed as to what the Presbyterian church will have. If we could just place our credit in bank to-day all that was eaten up in turkeys in the United States yesterday, the worries and hard work of the print shop we would leave to the other fellow. NEW.

LAND-HUDE: Mrs. James B. Hude, of Columbus, Ohio and Miss Alma Lee Newland, formerly of Kentucky, were married Monday evening, November 12th, by the pastor of the Gift street M.E. Church, Rev. P.H. Fry. They will reside on Sandusky street. Since the building of the pike of the top of town hill has begun and people see what improvements can be made with a small outlay of money, some of the more enterprising citizens are favoring the issuing of bonds by the town to pike every street within the corporate limits. This certainly is the only way to improve our streets and roads and in the long run the cost will not be any more. Let us have expressions from the citizens of the town. Last Friday night, was the second of the college musicals of the season. The seating capacity of the college chapel was taxed almost to its full extent and everyone in the audience went away fully delighted. The junior and senior choirs were excellent and besides showing much musical talent on the part of the fifty or sixty boys and young ladies who took part, it likewise speaks for itself, in behalf of the splendid instructors, Prof. McDonald and Mrs. von Eichen. The solos sung by Mrs. Rider and

Mrs. M.J. Miller, Jr., were two of the interesting numbers on the program. These recitals will take place every month. Fred Percell, aged 20, son of William Percell, died Wednesday of typhoid fever. D.G. Poynter, R.S. Davault, I.A. Bowman and Tom Branaman were at London this week as Federal Court jurors. Jailor, O.V. Jarrel, has ten more shiners, being brought here by order of the Federal Court at London. Messrs. Kelly and Burton have bought out the photographer's outfit of Dr. M.L. Meyers and have opened a gallery over the Peoples Bank. Mr. George Sutton, of Rockcastle County, employed at London. Messrs. Kelly and Miss Lizzie Owens, of Brodhead, were married today at Junction City. Van Mason aged about 50, died rather suddenly at his home near Orlando yesterday morning. He had been a sufferer of dropsy and heart trouble for fifteen years. The L&N will sell round-trip tickets to all points on the system at one and one-third fare December 20 to 25, inclusive and December 30 to January 1, 1907, inclusive. Limited to return January 7, 1907. The following information was received here a few days ago concerning a former Rockcastle citizen who went West many years ago; Mr. James Love Terrill died very suddenly of apoplexy, August 30, at Sulphur Springs, Indian Territory, which place he had made his home since March. The deceased was the grandson of Dr. Joplin, and was born in Mt. Vernon, Kentucky.

MARETUBURG NEWS
Bro. Karr is expected to fill his appointment at the church Saturday and Sunday. Sunday school is still progressing nicely. The report of last Sunday's exercises was very good, all the classes were represented by a good number, all the teachers present. Number of chapters read the preceding week were 131. The report of the Treasurer shows a nice surplus in the treasury. DEAD: After an illness of several months hard suffering from heart trouble, Mrs. Jane Burke passed away on the 21st of this month. "Aunt Jane" as known in the community, was a respectable old lady possessing many good qualities and winning the love and esteem of all those who knew her. She leaves a son and a host of friends to regret the vacancy occasioned by her loss, but our loss is her gain, as she expressed her willingness to go. "A good name is better than riches." Mr. Hartz still improves, only paralysis of the knees and feet prevent him from walking. Mrs. Dora Owen remains about the same. Misses Ella Carson and Julia Reynolds, of Brown Memorial College ree at home for Thanksgiving. Mr. Edgar Griffin, wife and son, of Knoxville, spent last week with relatives here. Mrs. Cleo Howell and little daughter Gertrude, spent last Saturday until Sunday with Mrs. R.E. Reynolds. Miss Montie Martin, of Mt. Vernon, visited at Elmer Houk's Saturday and Sunday. Miss Bettie Lewis Livingston is visiting Lena McCall. Rev. C.C. Mettalf is in North Carolina closing business here. Mr. and Mrs. Scoggins and daughter, Lily of North Carolina have come to make their home in Kentucky. As of yet they have not gone to keeping house at their home on the Gan's property. The Misses Dillingham, of South Carolina, after spending a few weeks at Asheville, North Carolina has joined their parents here, who now are settled in the Josiah Mullins' property. Mr. Mullins moving near Cedar Creek, Lincoln County. J.J. McCall spent Saturday and Sunday with homefolks on his way from Stanford to Hazel Patch.

HIATT NEWS
Mr. Homer Chestnut is quite ill with rheumatism. Our revival meeting closed here Sunday night with only one addition. Misses Lou Phillips, Nora Bower and Thessie Sigmon were the guests of Miss Bessie Hiatt Saturday night and Sunday. L.T. Stewart and family of Wildie were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Early Sunday. Little Miss Gertrude Chaston has been quite sick. Rumor says we are to have a wedding in this part soon. Misses Rhoda Bowman and Marsha Daily, also Messrs. Bob and Harve Bowman, of Mt. Vernon attended church here Sunday. Dr. Jones, of Wildie, attended church here Sunday. Mr. Albert Fish, of Wildie, was here Sunday. Miss Eva and John Fish were the guests of Jesse Fish Saturday night and Sunday. Dr. E.I. Brown, Will Warren and Dr. Price of Stanford, are spending a few days with Mr. Allen Hiatt hunting. George Brown and daughter, Miss Eliza, of Freedom, attended church here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Amos Smith, of Brodhead attended church here Sunday.

Library News

By Pam Chalfif
The library recently received the January/February edition of our Kentucky Public Library newsletter. I would like to refer to an article in this newsletter titled "12 Ways Libraries are good for the 'Country'". Libraries inform citizens—Democracy and libraries have a symbiotic relationship. It would be impossible to have one without the other. Libraries break down boundaries—Libraries rid us of fences that obstruct our vision and our ability to communicate and to educate ourselves. Libraries level the playing field—Economists have cited a growing income inequity in America, with the gap between the richest and the poorest citizens increasing each year. By making its resources available to all members of its community, the library levels the playing field. Once users have access, they have the opportunity to excel outside the library by learning to read, gaining employment or starting a business. Libraries value the individual—Libraries allow for independent thinking without pre-judgement. Collections offer the historical, global, cultural, and political perspective that is necessary to encourage exploration. Libraries nourish creativity, open kids minds, help build communities, make families friendlier and preserve the past. I did not cover all of the twelve ways that libraries are good to us, but I think that you will get the idea that our public library is a valuable resource in our community. We do have public access to computers in our library, and in the near future will have several more computer stations. There have been lots of students using this service. However, we do still have lots of books and other reference materials available. We have several new books. Most of us try to stress that we do receive the best sellers on a regular basis. Many people still feel that the library is just a building filled with really old books. Stop in one day and allow us to show just a few of the things that are now available, free of charge at your public library.

We have tax forms available at no charge. If you need a copy of a certain form there is a small fee for this service.

"IT IS WRITTEN"

Today we want to conclude our study of Col 3:18-21 as we shall study about parents

In verse 21 we read, "Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged." Consider also Eph 6:4, "And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath, but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." Fathers are addressed in these passages, though mothers are included, for fathers are more apt to provoke their children to anger. Fathers can provoke their children in a variety of ways: by showing partiality or favoritism, being harsh and cruel, being unfair and unreasonable, by simply neglecting them. Bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, is the whole process of training, instructing, disciplining that they need. In Luke 2:52 we read, "And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man." Jesus grew in four areas: in wisdom - mentally, in stature - physically, favor with God - spiritually, favor with man - socially. All 4 areas are important, and require time and effort on the part of parents. If children are not growing physically, we would be concerned and take them to the doctor. Yet probably the most neglected area that parents fail in is the spiritual upbringing that children need. May we be concerned and earning of the complete training that our children need. Far too many kids in our country are neglected and rejected. There is a lot more to be a father that conceiving a child!
